At daylight I was half-awakened by the sound of chopping. Again it was so even in texture that I went back to sleep. When I left my bed in the cool morning, the boy had come and gone, and a stack of kindling was neat against the cabin wall. He came after school in the afternoon and worked until time to return to the orphanage. His name was Jerry he had been at the orphanage since he was four. I could picture him at four, with the same grave gray-blue eyes and the same—independence. No, the word that comes to me is 'integrity' It is bedded on courage, but it is more than brave. It is honest, but it is more than honesty. The axe handle broke one day. Jerry said the woodshop at the orphanage would repair it. I brought money to pay for the job and he refused it. "I'll pay for it," he said. "I broke it. I brought the axe down careless." "But no one hits accurately every time." I told him. "The fault was in the wood of the handle. I'll see the man from whom I bought it." It was only then that he would take the money. He was standing back of his own carelessness. He was a free-will agent and he chose to do careful work, and if he failed, he took the responsibility without subterfuge.

1. A boy of integrity → 2. → 3. → 4. → 5. → 6.

1. A boy of integrity

2. A boy of courage

3. An icon of bravery

4. An example of honesty

Reforming Literature Education in Malaysia 1957 - 2020 Jia Wei Lim, 2024-08-12 Lim traces the complexities in construction and implementation of a school subject namely Literature in English in Malaysia through a focused and grounded narrative where tensions regarding identity, reader response and conceptualisations about literature play out in a postcolonial context. The book demonstrates the need to think about school subjects as abstract concepts negotiated at various levels be it during curriculum construction or in the classroom. These conceptualisations of the subject are further influenced by contemporary concerns and sociopolitical changes over time. As such, the scope of this book ranges from pre-independence Malaysia then Malaya from the 1950s till the current phase of the subject's development in the 21st century. The volume illustrates the complex interplay of historical, cultural and social influences on the conceptualisation of English literature as a school subject in Malaysia. Lim traces
