Reclaiming Time Isaiah Matthew Wooden, 2025-03-15 Showing how twenty first century Black theater and media arts challenge dominant conceptualizations of time Reclaiming Time Race Temporality and Black Expressive Culture examines works by contemporary Black artists in multiple media drama film performance art and photography that trouble dominant conceptualizations and normative configurations of time in relation to race in the twenty first century Isaiah Matthew Wooden explores the ways in which an intentional and sometimes ludic engagement with time and temporality has enabled these artists to probe urgent questions and themes concerning the conditions of contemporary Black life Wooden surveys a diverse array of performance based and visual texts to explore the rich practices of contemporary Black expressive culture dramatic works by playwrights Eisa Davis Tarell Alvin McCraney and Robert O Hara performance art and photography by visual artists Jefferson Pinder and LaToya Ruby Frazier and feature length cinema by director producer Tanya Hamilton These works expose normative time as specious and evidence the transformative potential in honing practices of Black temporal experimentation and intervention By putting this cross disciplinary set of texts in conversation with each other Wooden sheds new light on the shrewd ways that they each reflect an investment in unbinding time from the exigencies of normativity and teleology as well as on their shared commitments to reclaiming time to reimagine and represent Blackness in all its multiplicities

Depth Effects Brooke Belisle, 2024-01-09 In this bold rewriting of visual culture Brooke Belisle uses dimensionality to rethink the history and theory of media aesthetics With Depth Effects she traces AI enabled techniques of computational imaging back to spatial strategies of early photography analyzing everyday smartphone apps by way of almost forgotten media forms Drawing on the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty Belisle explores depth both as a problem of visual representation how can flat images depict a voluminous world and as a philosophical paradox how do things cohere beyond the limits of our view She explains how today's depth effects continue colonialist ambitions toward totalizing ways of seeing But she also shows how artists stage dimensionality to articulate what remains invisible and irreducible

Scholars and Their Kin Stéphane Gerson, 2025-02-19 Spotlights historians who have embraced the methodological practical and ethical challenges of writing about the most slippery of subjects their own families Historians have often been discouraged from writing about their relatives subjects who are deemed too close for objective analysis But new work by scholars interested in their own families raises fascinating questions about subjectivity and how historians might put it to use It also invites historians to abandon traditional aspects of academic writing and draw instead on literary forms more equipped to highlight the relationships between scholar and material feeling and reason Scholars and Their Kin embraces diverse approaches to such writing bringing into the open the personal professional and historiographic complexities that ensue when scholars write intimate yet self aware histories about their families The first book devoted to this genre which editor Stéphane Gerson terms personal family history this anthology features ten essays and an afterword by scholars working in this vein The contributors varied in their disciplines themes and nationalities reflect on their motivations and methodological choices the politics of family history and the institutional constraints they have sometimes faced Making full use of the creative possibilities of voice and form they expand the literary ambitions of personal family history provide readers with narrative models and address questions of shame responsibility love gendered and racial violence family archives as well as the tall tales myths misrepresentations memories and omissions that suffuse family lives Scholars and Their Kin will interest historians scholars in other disciplines and readers interested in family histories that open broader worlds

Capitalism and the Camera Kevin Coleman, Daniel James, 2021-05-11 A provocative exploration of photography's relationship to capitalism from leading theorists of visual culture Photography was invented between the publication of Adam Smith's The Wealth of Nations and Karl Marx and Frederick Engels's The Communist Manifesto Taking the intertwined development of capitalism and the camera as their starting point the essays in Capitalism and the Camera investigate the relationship between capitalist accumulation and the photographic image and ask whether photography might allow us to refuse capitalism's violence and if so how Drawn together in productive disagreement the essays in this collection explore the relationship of photography to resource extraction and capital accumulation from 1492 to the postcolonial the camera's potential to make visible critical understandings of capitalist production and society especially economies of class and desire and propose ways that the camera and the image can be used to build cultural and political counterpublics from which a democratic struggle against capitalism might emerge With essays by Ariella A sha Azoulay Siobhan Angus Kajri Jain Walter Benn Michaels T J Clark John Paul Ricco Blake Stimson Chris Stolarski Tong Lam and Jacob Emery Arc of Interference João Biehl,Vincanne Adams,2023-02-27 The radically humanistic essays in Arc of Interference refigure our sense of the real the ethical and the political in the face of mounting social and planetary upheavals Creatively assembled around Arthur Kleinman s medical anthropological arc and eschewing hegemonic modes of intervention the essays advance the notion of a care ful ethnographic praxis of interference To interfere is to dislodge ideals of naturalness blast enduring binaries human nonhuman self other us them and redirect technocratic agendas while summoning relational knowledge and the will to create community The book s multiple ethnographic arcs of interference provide a vital conceptual toolkit for today s world and a badly needed moral perch from which to peer toward just horizons Contributors Vincanne Adams Jo o Biehl Dav d Carrasco Lawrence Cohen Jean Comaroff Robert Desjarlais Paul Farmer Marcia Inhorn Janis H Jenkins David S Jones Salmaan Keshavjee Arthur Kleinman Margaret Lock Adriana Petryna
