Documentaries Susan Hayward, 2021-11-29 This companion piece to Susan Hayward's Film Ecology focuses on ecology documentaries produced in the first 20 years of the new millennium 2000-19 Using Kate Raworth's regenerative economic theoretical model as set out in Doughnut Economics this book examines 57 films emanating from Europe and the 4 areas of concern they raise about energy production pollution and waste management agribusiness disrupted ecosystems and the migratory flow These ecology documentaries make explicit the damage done to our planet thanks to growth capitalism and neoliberal globalisation But they also provide the evidence that solutions to this planetary abuse exist The book demonstrates how these documentaries reveal the process of humankind's planetary plundering and explores the structuring of the eco doc as a new generic type in the domain of documentary practice Using Raworth's model allows us to measure the tentacular extent of the planetary harm growth economics induces and too by way of contrast perceive how regenerative economics can work to redress this harm heal the Earth and make it a safe place for humanity This book is ideal for film studies scholars and students including those teaching or studying film practice documentary film European cinema and environmental studies as well as economists interested in regenerative economic models It also has general appeal to all who are concerned about some of the major causes of planetary degradation and its impact on humanity and Earth

The Routledge Companion to European Cinema Gábor Gergely, Susan Hayward, 2021-12-29 Presenting new and diverse scholarship this wide ranging collection of 43 original chapters asks what European cinema tells us about Europe The book engages with European cinema that attends to questions of European colonial racialized and gendered power seeks to decentre Europe itself not merely its putative centres and interrogate Europe's various conceptualizations from a variety of viewpoints It explores the broad complex and heterogeneous communities produced in and by European films taking in Kurdish Hollywood and Singapore cinema as comfortably as the cinema of Poland Spanish colonial films or the European gangster genre Chapters cover numerous topics including individual films film movements filmmakers stars scholarship representations and identities audiences production practices genres and more all analysed in their contexts so as to construct an image of Europe as it emerges from Europe's film corpus The Companion opens the study of European cinema to a broad readership and is ideal for students and scholars in film European studies queer studies and cultural studies as well as historians with an interest in audio visual culture nationalism and transnationalism and those working in language based area studies

Wasted World Rob Hengeveld, 2012-03-01 This biologist's monumental cri de Coeur for our planet offers a holistic view of our species the waste we produce and a path toward sustainability Nature In Wasted World Rob Hengeveld traces the entwined histories of population growth and resource consumption to reveal how our global waste crises came about As Hengeveld explains human life depends on energy which we first obtained through food Later we supplemented this with energy from water wind animals and finally fossil fuels as one source after another fell short of our ever growing needs Greater energy consumption has created greater waste including the atmospheric waste that is driving climate change As we face a web of interconnected problems addressing them individually will not work Instead Hengeveld argues we need to tackle their common cause our staggering population growth A practical look at the sustainability of our planet from a biologist and expert in the abundances and distributions of species Wasted World examines the whole process of using wasting and exhausting energy and material resources And by elucidating the complexity of the causes of our current global state Hengeveld offers us a way forward

The Challenge of BRIC Multinationals Rob van Tulder, Alain Verbeke, Jorge Carneiro, Maria Alejandra Gonzalez-Perez, 2016-11-23 This PIBR volume examines a number of idiosyncratic elements in the internationalization strategies of BRIC MNEs and in particular in their relationship with home country policies

Ecology and Literatures in English Françoise Besson, 2018-12-14 In all latitudes writers hold out a mirror leading the reader to awareness by telling real or imaginary stories about people of good will who try to save what can be saved and about animals showing humans the way to follow Such tales argue that in spite of all destructions and tragedies if we are just aware of and connected to the real world around us to the blade of grass at our feet and the star above our heads there is hope in a reconciliation with the Earth This may start with the emergence or rather the return of a nonverbal language restoring the connection between human beings and the nonhuman world through a form of communication beyond verbalization Through a journey in Anglophone literature with examples taken from Aboriginal African American English Canadian and Indian works this book shows the role played by literature in the protection of the planet It argues that literature reveals the fundamental idea that everything is connected and that it is only when most people are aware of this connection that the world will change Exactly as a tree is connected with all the animal life in and around it texts show that nothing should be separated From Shakespeare s theatre to ecopoetics from travel writing to detective novels from children s books to novels all literary genres show that literature responds to the violence destroying lands men and nonhuman creatures whose voices can be heard through texts Law, Development and Innovation Giuseppe Bellantuono, Fabiano Teodoro Lara, 2015-07-24 This book deals with one strand of the intense debate concerning the links between law and development namely the coordination of innovation processes and legal change It analyzes how innovation and ultimately development can be fostered or hindered by existing or new legal infrastructures The book includes eleven original contributions from senior and junior scholars and is divided into two parts the first focusing on theoretical frameworks and the second presenting several case studies on various institutional aspects A particular strength of this part is its broad geographical coverage which encompasses the legal frameworks in Europe the Americas Africa and Asia The contributions collected in this book will be of value to a broad readership Academic scholars will find useful information on lessons learned from reforms implemented in different areas and come to better understand the methodological hurdles involved in reform assessment Policymakers in national and international organizations can draw on these studies when designing new programs Lastly practitioners in developed and developing countries can use these contributions to promote the success of current or new initiatives Our Daily Poison Marie-Monique Robin, 2004-09-03 An enlightening and deeply disturbing account of the dangerous chemicals that have infiltrated our food by the Rachel Carson Prize winning journalist Booklist Our Daily Poison is a gripping and urgent book for anyone concerned about democracy corporate power or public health Raj Patel author of Stuffed and Starved In it award winning journalist and filmmaker Marie Monique Robin travels across North America Europe and Asia to document the shocking array of chemicals we encounter in our daily lives from the pesticides that blanket our crops to the additives and plastics that contaminate our food and their effects on our health over time Following the trail of the synthetic molecules in our environment and our food Robin traces the ugly history of industrial chemical production as well as the shoddy regulatory system for chemical products that still operates today Using scientific studies expert testimony and interviews with farmworkers suffering from acute chronic poisoning Robin demonstrates how corporate interests and our own ignorance may be costing us our lives What Rachel Carson s groundbreaking Silent Spring did for the environmental movement Robin is doing for awareness of toxins in the food chain Publishers Weekly This may be one of the most important books of the year Kirkus Reviews Full of facts stories and wisdom The Huffington Post Health Experts in the Media, Volume 2 Laurence Corroy,Christelle Chauzal-Larguier,Aurélie Pourrez,2024-09-04 Traditionally health experts are called upon mainly by public authorities and academic circles In recent years however thanks to the proliferation of media 24 hour news channels and digital offerings there is a growing demand for expert opinions on various health issues Expert knowledge can of course come from doctors and scientists however it is not limited to them Patient associations caregiver circles patient influencers YouTubers and specialist journalists are speaking out which raises questions concerning the place of the expert and the nature of their expertise Health Experts in the Media examines health experts place in the media in order to define the complexity of their role question their legitimacy and better understand the controversies they generate This book analyzes how expert discourse in the media can raise major scientific democratic and political issues Cultural Heritage in Transit Deborah Kapchan,2014-04-03 Are human rights universal The immediate response is yes of course However that simple affirmation assumes agreement about definitions of the human as well as what a human is entitled to under law bringing us quickly to concepts such as freedom property and the inalienability of both The assumption that we all mean the same things by these terms carries much political import especially given that different communities national ethnic religious gendered enact some of the most basic categories of human experience self home freedom sovereignty differently But whereas legal definitions often seek to eliminate ambiguity in order to define and protect the rights of humanity ambiguity is in fact inherently human especially in performances of heritage where the rights to sense to imagine and to claim cultural identities that resist circumscription are at play Cultural Heritage in Transit examines the intangibilities of human rights in the realm of heritage production focusing not only on the ephemeral culture of those who perform it but also on the ambiguities present in the idea of cultural property in general who claims it who may use it who should not but does In this volume folklorists ethnologists and anthropologists analyze the practice and performance of culture in particular contexts including Roma wedding music Trinidadian wining Moroccan verbal art and Neopagan rituals in order to draw apart the social political and aesthetic materialities of heritage production including inequities and hierarchies that did not exist before The authors collectively craft theoretical frameworks to make sense of the ways the rights of nations interact with the rights of individuals and communities when the public value of artistic creations is constituted through international law Contributors Valdimar Tr Hafstein Deborah Kapchan Barbro Klein Sabina Magliocco Dorothy Noyes Philip W Scher Carol Silverman GMO.

Another Perspective. The dark side of Patents Tito Schiva,2017-02-28 Tito Schiva geneticist and past Director of the Experimental Institute for Floriculture Sanremo I for 30 years attended the UPOV Workshop International Convention for the New Varieties of Plants Protection as Italian delegate In the pre DNA period together with A Mercuri he developed a method for genotype identification based on the isoenzymatic fingerprinting for plant varieties with a view to protecting intellectual property At the advent of genetic transformation techniques again working with A Mercuri he created dwarf compact plants on Limonium sp using the ROL genes and fluorescent flowers on Lisianthus and Rinchospermum using GFP genes Green Fluorescent Protein So far the controversy on GMO has concerned essentially the wealthy and the environment not highlighting the consequences of the Patent on living matter To apply a Patent on a gene provokes unique biological economical synergy and has a great impact on our lives Gunter Reimann in Patent for Hitler 1942 showed how the Patent was stifling the development of technology In this reality the food step crops appear to be the most vulnerable Slowing down innovation is the most negative aspect of the Patent system but the greatest tragedy lies in the political mistake of not pointing out the guidelines or worse forbidding the development of these bio technologies and then leaving this know how as a privilege of the few

Toxicity of Pesticides on Health and Environment Robin Mesnage, Gilles-Eric Seralini, 2018-12-07 Public policy is regularly shaken by health crises or unexpected discoveries future directions in toxicology assessment are therefore urgently needed Convergent evidences suggest endocrine or nervous disrupting effects of pesticides as well as effects on wildlife and the environment These effects are amplified by the use of surfactants and or combinations of different active principles The usual concepts of regulatory toxicology are challenged by endocrine nervous or immune disruption or epigenetic effects Indeed most pollutants alter cell cell communication systems to promote chronic diseases They may accumulate in the food chain Mixtures effects with other pollutants may change their bioavailability and their toxicity The lack of scientific knowledge in these matters has large costs for public health This Research Topic focuses on the toxic effects of pesticides associated with large scale cultivation of genetically modified GM plants

Culture and Horticulture Wolf D. Storl, 2013-02-19 Various studies have shown time and again that small organic farms and home gardens are capable of producing more food per acre with less fossil energy than large scale commercial agricultural installations dependent on machines and toxic chemical fertilizers and pesticides This classic book by Wolf D Storl a respected elder in the practice of permaculture details how food is grown holistically and beautifully by traditional communities around the world and shows how to apply their ancient wisdom to our own gardens With interest in natural sustainable organic and local food at an all time high people are looking beyond their farmers markets and CSA cooperatives to hyperlocal ways of growing healthy delicious produce in urban gardens and their own backyards Culture and Horticulture details time tested methods that are as effective today as they were hundreds of years ago On the practical front the book works as a manual for creating and maintaining a bountiful harvest It explains how to build the soil to maintain fertility how to produce compost how to plant sow and tend the various fruit and vegetable plants how to rotate crops and practice companion planting how to set up a favorable microclimate how to deal with so called weeds and pests how to harvest at the right time and finally how to store vegetables and herbs Special emphasis is given to the art and science of composting the compost being the heart of any self sufficient garden and a model for the cycle of life death and rebirth At the same time the reader is introduced to the wider aspects of horticulture to its historical philosophical and cosmological contexts and social relevance Gardening is a cultural activity shaped by peoples thoughts wishes and needs as well as by their cultural traditions The author an anthropologist by profession who has investigated the gardening practices of indigenous people throughout the world and worked for many years on biodynamic farms and in his own food garden will introduce the reader to Rudolf Steiner s vision of the garden as an organic unit embedded in the context of terrestrial and cosmic forces Storl explains the importance of cosmic rhythms solar lunar and planetary the role of biodynamic herbal preparations as medicines for the garden organism and the so called etheric and astral forces The book presents a vision of the garden as seen through the eyes of Goethean science a magical place where alchemical transformations of material substances take place Finance:

Women, Insecurity, and Violence in a Post-9/11 World Bronwyn Winter,2017-03-23 September 11 has become a temporal and symbolic marker of the world s brutal entry into the third millennium Nearly all discussions of world politics today include a tacit if not overt reference to that historical moment A decade and a half on Winter considers the impact of 9 11 on women around the world How were women affected by the events of that day Were all women affected in the same way Based on theoretical reflection empirical research and field work in different parts of the world each chapter of the book considers a different post 9 11 issue in relation to women global governance human security globalized militarism identity and sexuality in transnational feminist movements

No Mammo? Rachel Campergue,2025-07-23 Every year the month of October is decked out in pink with countless posters calling on people to crusade against breast cancer through mammography Why are public health officials doctors associations and laboratories so keen to do this Are women really well informed about the risks they run by undergoing screening And do the promised benefits really exist Rachel Campergue was outraged by gynecologists obstinacy in forcing her to undergo mammography What she discovered was appalling By infantilizing women public authorities promote confusion between prevention and screening Doctors do not have adequate knowledge to ensure that the consents they obtain from their patients are indeed informed As for the associations they are the agents of a juicy business that benefits above all the manufacturers of health products The conclusion of this abundant precise and humorous work is without appeal a cancer detected by mammography does not equal a life saved and if you choose to have one every two years do so with full knowledge of the facts
