Eckerle,Naomi McAreavey,2019-06 Women s Life Writing and Early Modern Ireland provides an original perspective on both new and familiar texts in this first critical collection to focus on seventeenth century women s life writing in a specifically Irish context By shifting the focus away from England even though many of these writers would have identified themselves as English and making Ireland and Irishness the focus of their essays the contributors resituate women's narratives in a powerful and revealing landscape. This volume addresses a range of genres from letters to book marginalia and a number of different women from now canonical life writers such as Mary Rich and Ann Fanshawe to far less familiar figures such as Eliza Blennerhassett and the correspondents and supplicants of William King, archbishop of Dublin. The writings of the Boyle sisters and the Duchess of Ormonde, women from the two most important families in seventeenth century Ireland, also receive a thorough analysis. These innovative and nuanced scholarly considerations of the powerful influence of Ireland on these writers' construction of self provide fresh illuminating insights into both their writing and their broader cultural context.      Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1902

The Handbook of Research on Teaching Literacy Through the Communicative and Visual Arts Volume II brings together state of the art research and practice on the evolving view of literacy as encompassing not only reading writing speaking and listening but also the multiple ways through which learners gain access to knowledge and skills. It forefronts as central to literacy education the visual communicative and performative arts and the extent to which all of the technologies that have vastly expanded the meanings and uses of literacy originate and evolve through the skills and interests of the young. From Solstice to Saturday to Seven O'Clock from Vervain to Mandrake to Amber using the right magickal correspondences strengthens any spell ceremony or ritual. Here Eileen Holland has gathered together a wealth of magickal knowledge complete with everything from hours, days, weeks and astrological alignment to proper corresponding plants, animals, oils, herbs and deities and compiled them into the ultimate reference book for anyone seeking guidance in creating their own enchantments. Includes a glossary of less familiar terms and deities as well as a glossary of ingredients.      The Publishers Weekly ,1928
