concept clarity to the students United States of America Congressional Record , HIV in US Communities of Color Bisola O. Ojikutu, Valerie E. Stone, 2020-08-21 This book builds upon its previous edition by comprehensively updating important epidemiologic and clinical content of the HIV continuum amongst Black and Latino individuals of the United States including the epidemiology prevention diagnosis and treatment of HIV within these diverse communities Illuminating current diagnostic and prevention considerations as well as its evidence base the text highlights important concepts and integrates critical aspects of the structural and social environment such as mass incarceration and neighborhood level disadvantage that compromise our ability to decrease HIV risk and improve outcomes Discussion regarding significant predictors of health inequity including discrimination medical mistrust and stigma specifically homophobia and transphobia are included The book also reviews the impact of significant advances in HIV prevention such as pre exposure prophylaxis PrEP within Black and Latino communities Written by experts in their field this second edition of HIV in US Communities of Color is a comprehensive and dynamic resource for all health care providers who support the care and treatment of Black and Latino of the war on terror were marked by the primacy of affects like fear and insecurity These aligned neatly with the state's drive toward intensive securitization and an aggressive foreign policy But for the broader citizenry such affects were tolerable at best and unbearable at worst they were not sustainable Figuring Violence catalogs the affects that define the latter stages of this war and the imaginative work that underpins them These affects apprehension affection admiration gratitude pity and righteous anger are far more subtle and durable than their predecessors rendering them deeply compatible with the ambitions of a state embroiling itself in a perpetual and unwinnable war Surveying the cultural landscape of this sprawling conflict Figuring Violence reveals the varied mechanisms by which these affects have been militarized Rebecca Adelman tracks their convergences around six types of beings civilian children military children military spouses veterans with PTSD and TBI Guant namo detainees and military dogs All of these groups have become preferred objects of sentiment in wartime public culture but they also have in common their status as political subjects who are partially or fully unknowable They become visible to outsiders through a range of mediated and imaginative practices that are ostensibly motivated by concern or compassion However these practices actually function to reduce these beings to abstracted figures silencing their political subjectivities and obscuring their suffering As a result they are erased and rendered hypervisible at once Figuring Violence demonstrates that this dynamic ultimately propagates the very militarism that begets their victimization Code of Federal Regulations ,2015 Special edition of the Federal Register containing a codification of documents of general applicability and future effect with ancillaries General/ Banking/ Economy Awareness Topic-wise Solved Papers for IBPS/ SBI/ RRB/ RBI Bank Clerk/ PO Prelim & Main Exams (2010-21) 5th Edition Disha Experts,2020-07-01 Creating Heritage for Tourism Catherine Palmer,Jacqueline Tivers,2018-07-27 What does heritage mean in the twenty first century Traditional ideas of heritage involve places where objects landscapes people and ideas are venerated and reproduced over time as an inheritance for future generations To speak of heritage is to speak of a relationship between the past the present and the future However it is a past recreated for economic gain hence sectors such as culinary tourism ecotourism cultural tourism and film tourism have employed the heritage label to attract visitors This interdisciplinary book furthers understanding on how heritage is socially constructed interpreted and experienced within different geographic and cultural contexts in both Western and non Western settings Subjects discussed include Welsh linguistic heritage tango mushroom tourism Turkish coffee literary tourism and the techniques employed to construct tourist accommodation By focusing upon heritage creation in the context of tourism the book moves beyond traditional debates about authentic heritage to focus on how something becomes heritage for use in the present This timely volume will be of interest to students and researchers in tourism heritage studies geography museum studies and cultural studies Routledge Handbook of Sexuality, Gender, Health and Rights Peter Aggleton,Rob Cover,Carmen H.
