Green,2011-03-31 First published in 1990 this is the first text to offer a geographicand regional study of venture capitalism Although the importance of this type of capitalism in creating and nurturing small firms has long been recognized it does not have a uniform global character Drawing on previously unused data Green s book offers a geographic comparison which displays the diverse forms of venture capitalist markets from the well established to the newly emerging and the rapidly disappearing Teaching IFRS Richard M.S. Wilson,Ralph W. Adler,2013-09-13 The increasing pace of global conformance towards the adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards IFRS highlights the need for accounting students as well as accounting practitioners to be conversant with IFRS Teaching IFRS offers expert descriptions of and insights into the IFRS convergence process from a teaching and learning perspective Hence this book is both timely and likely to have considerable impact in providing guidance for those who teach financial reporting around the world. The contents of the book come from authoritative sources and offer something distinctive to complement the existing textbooks which typically focus on the technical aspects of IFRS and their adoption. Drawing upon the experiences of those who have sought to introduce IFRS related classroom innovations and the associated student outcomes achieved therefrom, the book offers suggestions about how to design and deliver courses dealing with IFRS and catalogues extensive listings of IFRS related teaching resources to support those courses. This book was originally published as a special issue of Accounting Education: An international journal.
