Knight,2021-09-11 Vertiginous Life provides a theory of the intense temporal disorientation brought about by life in crisis In the whirlpool of unforeseen social change people experience confusion as to where and when they belong on timelines of previously unquestioned pasts and futures Through individual stories from crisis Greece this book explores the everyday affects of vertigo nausea dizziness breathlessness the sense of falling and unknowingness of Self Being lost in time caught in the spin cycle of crisis people reflect on belonging to modern Europe neoliberal promises of accumulation defeated futures and the existential dilemmas of life held captive in the uncanny elsewhere Teaching and Learning Like a Feminist

Elizabeth Mackinlay,2016-11-25 Teaching and Learning Like a Feminist is a conversation between academics in Women s Studies and Gender Studies about the politics of pedagogy in higher education What does it mean to embody feminism in universities today Written in a creative narrative style Mackinlay explores the discursive material and affective dimensions of what it might mean to live the personal as political as performative in our work as teachers and learners in the contemporary climate of neo liberal universities This book is both theory and story and aims to bring feminist theorists such as Virginia Woolf H l ne Cixous Sara Ahmed and bell hooks together in conversation with Mackinlay s own experiences and those of women she interviewed in their diverse roles as feminist academic subjects The fluid writing style presented is a deliberate attempt to enact a post academic form of literature and is playfully punctuated by black and white drawings Teaching and Learning Like a Feminist captures the precarious position of Women and Gender Studies in universities today as well as the danger inherent in grounding teaching and learning work in feminist politics Mackinlay wraps herself in both and invites us to do the same This book is designed to stimulate reflection and lively class discussion and is appropriate for courses in curriculum studies and pedagogy education feminism and feminist theory gender and women s studies and narrative inquiry It can also be read by individual teachers and researchers interested in feminism Mackinlay re envisages how feminist knowledge can be articulated through her audacious and engaging mix of reflection analysis narrative poetry and line drawings This is a refreshingly personal and powerfully collective analysis of doing feminism in hostile institutions It will give heart to many Alison Bartlett The University of Western Australia Perth This highly readable book is a love story about feminism at the same time as a rigorous investigation a must read for undergraduate students and for scholars who don t
