

Georgia Child Protective Services Mandated Reporter Form

A report can be made by calling 1-855-422-4453, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, 365 days per year. A Case Manager will respond to your call quickly and gather necessary information needed to assess the child's safety.

Mandated Reporters also have three additional CPS reporting options. Please use only one CPS reporting option per family:

Option One: Complete your report on the CPS mandated reporter website at: <https://cps.dhs.ga.gov>. If you are using this option and received an auto-reply from the website, please do not use other reporting options. We will process the report based on what you have provided or call you at the number you have on your report if we need additional information. Before you can register on the mandated reporter website, you must take a short, free online mandated reporter training offered by Pro-Solutions training at: <https://www.prosolutionstraining.com>

Option Two: E-mail the report to cpssublet@dhs.ga.gov. You will receive an auto-reply stating that the CPS report has been received. You will receive a return phone call within 2 hours if additional information is needed. Once the report is entered and stage progressed in SHMCS, you will receive a mandated reporter letter via email. The mandated reporter letter is emailed to the email address you registered on the CPS website with. The return phone call satisfies the legal requirement to speak with a DHS employee. Please include on the report a number where you can be reached.

Option Three: Fax to 329-317-4563. Once the report is entered and stage progressed in SHMCS, you will receive a mandated reporter letter via email. The mandated reporter letter is emailed to the email address you have on your fax. You will receive a return phone call within 2 hours if additional information is needed. This return phone call satisfies the legal requirement to speak with a DHS employee. Please include on the report a number where you can be reached and your email address. To request a PDF version of the CPS form or mandated reporter letter, please contact customer_services_office@dhs.ga.gov

Please note that you may be called for additional information regarding this report.

All reporters have the ability to make an anonymous report. Your information will be kept confidential and will not be shared. If court action is initiated, the case record may be subpoenaed as a result of court proceedings and the reporter cannot be assured confidentiality will be fully protected. It may be necessary for you to appear in court to protect the child. All reporters are immune from liability when the report is made in good faith.

Supervising Child Protective Services Caseworkers Thomas D. Morton, Marsha K. Salus, 1994 Provides the foundation for supervisory practice in Child Protective Services CPS It describes the roles responsibilities of the CPS supervisor provides practice oriented advice on how to carry out supervisory responsibilities Designed for CPS supervisors administrators but it also may be helpful to child welfare agency staff who provide training for supervisory personnel to schools of social work as they prepare new social workers for the child welfare field Also includes a glossary of terms a bibliography

Child Welfare for the Twenty-first Century Gerald P. Mallon, Peg McCartt Hess, 2014-09-09 The Adoption and Safe Families Act ASFA which became law in 1997 elicited a major shift in federal policy and thinking toward child welfare emphasizing children's safety permanency and well being over preserving biological ties at all costs The first edition of this volume mapped the field of child welfare after ASFA's passage detailing the practices policies programs and research affected by the legislation's new attitude toward care This second edition highlights the continuously changing child welfare climate in the U S including content on the Fostering Connections Act of 2008 The authors have updated the text throughout drawing from real world case examples and data obtained from the national Child and Family Services Reviews and emerging empirically based practices They have also added chapters addressing child welfare workforce issues supervision and research and evaluation The volume is divided into four sections child and adolescent well being child and adolescent safety permanency for children and adolescents and systemic issues within services policies and programs Recognized scholars practitioners and policy makers discuss meaningful engagement with families particularly Latino families health care for children and youth including mental health care effective practices with LGBT youth and their families placement stability foster parent recruitment and retention and the challenges of working with immigrant children youth and families

Child Protection in America John E.B. Myers, 2024-10-11 Child abuse and neglect are tragically common Each year more than 1 000 American children die due to maltreatment Thousands more suffer physical abuse sexual abuse and neglect Across the country every community has a system of government operated and funded child protective services CPS But given that social workers of CPS have the authority to remove children from unsafe parents it is no surprise that CPS is controversial Does CPS protect children Does CPS do more good than harm Is CPS fundamentally racist as some critics argue Should CPS be abolished To answer these questions it is essential to understand the origins of child protection in America How did we arrive at the child protection system in place today This book traces the history of child protection from colonial times to the present and provides the most in depth analysis ever published of the origins of child protection
