Icon, Cult, and Context Maura K. Heyn, Ann Irvine Steinsapir, 2016-12-31 This festschrift honors UCLA professor emerita Susan Downey and her meticulous scholarship on religious architecture and imagery in the Roman Hellenistic world. The iconography of gods and goddesses, the analysis of sacred imagery in the context of ancient cult practices and the design and decoration of sacred spaces are the main themes of the book. Authors examine such subjects as painting from Dura Europos, Hellenistic sculpture at Saqqara in Egypt, Roman cameo glass, Pompeian fresco, and aspects of Venus in portrait sculpture. The essays on Dura Europos are especially valuable in light of the present turmoil in the region. Professor Downey's influence shines through in these discussions which echo her mentorship of several generations of art history and archaeology students and recognize her scholarly achievements. The broad temporal and geographic parameters of the volume are expansive and the juxtaposition of images and analyses leads to surprising new conclusions. Popular

Perishable and Imperishable? W. Tyler Sykora,2023-08-11 The purpose of this book is to re examine Paul s list of building materials in 1 Cor 3:12 in order to propose that all of the materials should be understood as good and necessary for adequately building in Paul s construction metaphor 1 Cor 3:9-17 Contra the traditional interpretation which argues that the materials should be broken into two groups of three namely three imperishable building materials gold silver and precious stones and three perishable building materials wood hay and stubble Paul s argument concerning the building materials listed in 1 Cor 3:12 is not focused on which materials one uses to build perishable or imperishable but rather how one builds i.e. quality construction with the materials church members one has This reading helps the church and its leaders understand that all the building materials church members are absolutely essential to building of the church It also emphasizes that leaders of the church must seek to build well with the folly of the gospel and not build their ministries upon themselves
