Civilizations Laurent Binet, 2021-09-14 An ambitious and highly entertaining novel of revisionist history from the author of the international bestseller HHhH Laurent Binet's Civilizations is nothing less than a strangely believable counterfactual history of the modern world fizzing with ideas about colonization empire building and the eternal human quest for domination It is an electrifying novel by one of Europe's most exciting writers Freydis is a woman warrior and leader of a band of Viking explorers setting out to the south They meet local tribes exchange skills are taken prisoner and get as far as Panama But nobody ultimately knows what became of them Fast forward five hundred years to 1492 and we're reading the journals of Christopher Columbus mid Atlantic on his own famous voyage of exploration to the Americas dreaming of gold and conquest But he and his men are taken captive by Incas Even as their suffering increases his faith in his superiority and in his mission is unshaken Thirty years later Atahualpa the last Inca emperor arrives in Europe in the ships stolen from Columbus He finds a continent divided by religious and dynastic quarrels the Spanish Inquisition Luther's Reformation capitalism the miracle of the printing press endless warmongering between the ruling monarchies and constant threat from the Turks But most of all he finds downtrodden populations ready for revolution Fortunately he has a recent bestseller as a guidebook to acquiring power Machiavelli's The Prince The stage is set for a Europe ruled by Incas and Aztecs and for a great war that will change history forever Trauma & Memory Christine Berberich, 2021-03-31 Over the past decades the memory of the Holocaust has not only become a common cultural consciousness but also a cultural property shared by people all over the world This collection brings together academics critics and creative practitioners from the fields of Holocaust Studies Literature History Media Studies Creative Writing and German Studies to discuss contemporary trends in Holocaust commemoration and representation in literature film TV the entertainment industry and social media The essays in this trans disciplinary collection debate how contemporary culture engages with the legacy of the Holocaust now that 75 years on from the end of the Second World War the number of actual survivors is dwindling It engages with ongoing cultural debates in Holocaust Studies that have seen a development from largely testimonial presentations of the Holocaust to more fictional narratives both in literature and film In addition to a number of chapters focusing in particular on literary trends in Holocaust representation the collection also assesses other forms of cultural production surrounding the Holocaust ranging from recent official memorialisation in Germany to Holocaust presentation in film computer games and social media The collection also highlights the contributions by creative practitioners such as writers and performers who use drama and the traditional art of storytelling in order to keep memories alive and pass them on to new generations The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Holocaust Studies A Journal of Culture and History Civilisations Laurent Binet, 2021 Civilisations is the world as we don't know it set at different points in history it links stories about characters in different places and times all hungry to explore and to acquire power Freydis is a woman warrior and leader of a band of Viking explorers setting out southwards They meet local tribes exchange skills are taken prisoner and get as far as Panama But nobody ultimately knows what became of them Fast forward five hundred years to 1492 and we're reading the journals of Christopher Columbus mid Atlantic on his own famous voyage of exploration to The Americas dreaming of gold and conquest But he and his men are taken captive by Incas Even as their sufferings increase his faith in his superiority and in his mission is unshaken Thirty years later Atahualpa the last Inca emperor arrives in Europe in the ships stolen from Columbus He finds a continent divided by religious and dynastic quarrels the Spanish Inquisition Luther's Reformation capitalism the miracle of the printing press endless warmongering between the ruling monarchies and constant threat from the Turks But most of all he finds downtrodden populations ready for revolution Fortunately he has a recent bestseller as a guidebook to acquiring power Machiavelli's The Prince The stage is set for a Europe ruled by Incas and Aztecs and for a great war that will change history forever Civilisations is nothing less than a strangely believable counterfactual history of the modern world fizzing with ideas about colonisation empire building and the eternal human quest for domination It is an electrifying novel by one of Europe's most exciting writers The Beauty of a Social Problem Walter Benn Michaels, 2015-07-13 Bertolt Brecht once worried that our sympathy for the victims of a social problem can make the problem's beauty and attraction invisible In The Beauty of a Social Problem Walter Benn Michaels explores the effort to overcome this difficulty through a study of several contemporary artist photographers whose work speaks to questions of political economy Although he discusses well known figures like Walker Evans and Jeff Wall Michaels's focus is on a group of younger artists including Viktoria Binschok Phil Chang Liz Deschenes and Arthur Ou All born after 1965 they have always lived in a world where on the one hand artistic ambition has been synonymous with the critique of autonomous form and intentional meaning while on the other the struggle between capital and labor has essentially been won by capital Contending that the aesthetic and political conditions are connected Michaels argues that these artists' new commitment to form and meaning is a way for them to depict the conditions that have taken US economic inequality from its lowest level in 1968 to its highest level today As Michaels demonstrates these works of art unimaginable without the postmodern critique of autonomy and intentionality end up departing and dissenting from that critique in continually interesting and innovative ways

Perspectives Laurent Binet, 2026-01-29 Florence New Year's Day 1557 As dawn breaks a painter is discovered lying on the floor of a church stabbed through the heart Above him the paintings he laboured over for more than a decade At his home a hidden painting scandalously depicting Maria de Medici daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Florence as a naked Venus Who is the murderer Who is behind the painting As the city erupts in chaos Giorgio Vasari the great art historian is picked to lead the investigation Letters fly back and forth carrying news of political plots and speculation about the killer's identity between Maria and her aunt Catherine de Medici the queen of France between Catherine and her scheming agents in Florence and between Vasari and his friend Michelangelo Meanwhile the Pope is banning books and branding works of art immoral And the truth when it comes to light is as shocking as the bold new artworks that have made Florence the red hot centre of Europe Bursting with characters and colour Perspectives is a mystery like no other that shows us Renaissance Florence as we've never seen it before a dazzling hugely entertaining novel of court machinations murder and art

Multiple Narratives, Versions and Truth in the Contemporary Novel Nicholas Frangipane, 2019-10-22 Multiple Narratives Versions and Truth in the Contemporary Novel considers the shifting perception of truth in fiction Nicholas Frangipane examines the narrative technique of telling multiple versions of the same sets of events presenting both true and false versions of the events within a fictional work This book looks closely at these Reflexive Double Narratives in order to understand the way many contemporary writers have attempted to work past postmodernism without forgetting its lessons Frangipane explores how writers like Ian McEwan Yann Martel and Alice Munro have departed from the radical experimentation of their predecessors and instead make sincere attempts to find ways that fictional writing can reveal enduring truths and in so doing redefine the meaning of truth itself and signal the emergence of post postmodernism

Lessons and Legacies XII Wendy Lower, Lauren Faulkner Rossi, 2017-02-15 Lessons and Legacies XII explores new directions in research and teaching in the field of Holocaust studies The essays in this volume present the most cutting edge methods and topics shaping Holocaust studies today from a variety of disciplines forensics environmental history cultural studies religious studies labor history film studies history of medicine sociology pedagogy and public history This rich compendium reveals how far Holocaust studies have reached into cultural studies perpetrator history and comparative genocide history Scholars laypersons teachers and the myriad organizations devoted to Holocaust memorialization and education will find these essays useful and illuminating
