The Hope Train Laura Rabb Morgan EdD,2022-01-15 Even though I can't hear the trains every day like I did when I was growing up I still live across the train tracks When I was growing up you had to cross the train tracks to get to my house and even now in my twilight years you have to cross the train tracks to get to my house However I never thought of living across the tracks as a negative thing like it is in the movies I am sure it is because negativity was not a part of my life growing up We were never harshly beaten or yelled at for the slightest thing like some children We realized we were poor but that didn't define us because we were surrounded by love in our own home and in our community We lived in a church community dedicated to educating children and working hard No we weren't overly praised either We didn't get anything for good grades or for our birthdays Yes we were hungry sometimes but we never starved because we trusted our parents to provide for us and they always did Simple peanut butter and cracker sandwiches could make eight little children on Crichton Hill in Minden Louisiana smile as if they didn't have a care in the world because to them they didn't What we always had was hope It was this realization that gave me the impetus to call my memoir The Hope Train Hope because of all the prayers my mom sent to heaven on her kids behalf and the trains that passed by each day and even provided passage for me as I was the first in my family to go to college and the seven other Rabb children would board the train also Hope shares the richness of living in Christ and helps readers spend time in God's Word and in prayer. A great addition to the comfort section at any bookstore and the perfect gift for someone struggling with illness, pain, or discouragement. Hope, Healing & Heaven Julia Jourdan, 2021-02-02. Hope, Healing and Heaven is for everyone in search of hope. I have walked in your shoes. I've been mistreated, rejected, addicted, depressed, and anxiety-ridden, hopeless, and grief-stricken. But that is not where this story ends. My journey out of the pit of hopelessness is outlined in these pages as I discover the truth that whatever the present circumstances, hope still remains. Hope that is not just wishful thinking but hope that comes with the certainty of an expected conclusion. The key is to understand that this present and short life is only the first act on the stage of eternity, just the opening scene in an infinite drama where the second, final, and never-ending act is spectacularly better than the first. So take heart: even the worst of situations can be overcome with hope and healing, and the certain expectation of Heaven.

Hope for Tomorrow E. Carver McGriff, 1999. Here is a creative approach to Bible study that will spark discussion. McGriff tackles such issues as divorce, homosexuality, the divinity of Jesus, and miracles. This book will be of interest to church groups as well as to individuals wrestling with their personal faith. Though he sometimes takes controversial positions, McGriff always delivers fascinating and challenging reflections. He reconsiders traditional interpretations of Jesus' words, intending to stretch the minds of traditionalists while winning over doubters, especially those new to the church but still sitting on the fringes of its theology. This is a book preachers will want to read. As you peruse these sermons from the pen of Dr. Carver McGriff, you will understand why, under his leadership, St. Luke's Methodist Church of Indianapolis became the largest Methodist Church north of the Mason-Dixon line. Carver is a preacher with a winsome style; his sermons are full of superb stories, wonderful quotes, and wise insights. Carver also has the ability to tackle some of the tough and controversial things we Christians face today. He handles these questions with candor and a liberal spirit that is always gentle and respectful of the opinions of others.

William G. Enright, Senior Pastor, Second Presbyterian Church, Indianapolis, Indiana. One of America's premier preachers, Dr. E. Carver McGriff has had a distinguished life and career. As a teenager, he was wounded and captured by a German SS battalion during World War II. He received a Bronze Star and two Purple Hearts and returned home to earn a degree in business administration from Butler University. Following a career as a salesman and a business owner, McGriff entered Garrett Theological Seminary, where he was voted Best Preacher by the faculty and graduated with distinction. He was then appointed by the Bishop of Indiana to start a new congregation on the northeast side of Indianapolis. He built the membership of his congregation from 900 to over 4,400, with Sunday attendance increasing from 300 to over 1,850. During his Indianapolis ministry, McGriff received an honorary degree from the University of Indianapolis and the Outstanding Alumnus award from Butler University and was voted the Distinguished Alumnus of the Year by Christian Theological Seminary. McGriff was also honored with the Sagamore of the Wabash by then Governor Evan Bayh. His sermons have been distributed nationwide by the Methodist Publishing Company. Full of Hope and Fear

Cynicism and Hope Meg E. Cox, 2009-01-01 On the morning after they walked for miles through freezing rain to a prayer vigil outside the White House in March 2007 a group of young war protesters listened to one last speech before heading home to Chicago Peter Dula who had served with the Mennonite Central Committee in Iraq spoke honestly about the caustic combination of guilt and disempowerment the protesters were struggling with He commended protesting and suggested resisting war taxes then made two surprising final recommendations ride a bike and plant a garden Electrified by Dula s speech the group wanted to talk more about their disillusionment and to learn from their elders in activism and the church So in November 2007 they hosted a conference at Reba Place Church in Evanston Illinois where over two hundred people gathered to learn worship and contemplate a more hopeful way This volume is a collection of the major addresses from that conference The contributors suggest a new way to live in the tension between hope that things will improve and cynicism about whether they ever will While creating space for lament they point toward a radical Christian faithfulness in neighborhoods and congregations that can be both hopeful and profoundly political
