Lake Morning In Autumn Questions And Answers:

The Ladies' Repository, 1861 The idea of this women's magazine originated with Samuel Williams a Cincinnati Methodist who thought that Christian women needed a magazine less worldly than Godey's Lady's Book and Snowden's Lady's Companion Written largely by ministers this exceptionally well printed little magazine contained well written essays of a moral character plenty of poetry articles on historical and scientific matters and book reviews Among western writers were Alice Cary who contributed over a hundred sketches and poems her sister Phoebe Cary Otway Curry Moncure D Conway and Joshua R Giddings and New England contributors included Mrs Lydia Sigourney Hannah F Gould and Julia C R Dorr By 1851 each issue published a peice of music and two steel plates usually landscapes or portraits When Davis E Clark took over the editorship in 1853 the magazine became brighter and attained a circulation of 40 000 Unlike his predecessors Clark included fictional pieces and made the Repository a magazine for the whole family After the war it began to decline and in 1876 was replaced by the National Repository The Ladies Repository was an excellent representative of the Methodist mind and heart Its essays sketches and poems its good steel engravings and its moral tone gave it a charm all its own Cf American periodicals 1741 1900

Walking On The Edge Marco Previero, 2022-05-31 Millie was seven years old when she was first diagnosed with brain cancer To rebuild her physical and mental strength both significantly depleted following seven months of intensive treatment Millie and I made a habit of going on regular walks in the countryside As part of those we also started talking about her cancer and the limitations that this disease and its cure was going to impose on her life This is the book I wish I'd had when my daughter was first diagnosed Marco Previero covers several aspects of brain cancer and its related treatment in layman's terms making it easy to understand for fellow parents facing similar circumstances including the many practical challenges that parents and survivors of childhood brain tumours face in the long term depending on the position of the tumour its related treatment and cure how the body copes with therapy and the level of support available in the recovery phase He provides an objective exploration and reflection of Millie's treatment the limitations it has imposed and what they found helpful in addressing and managing these during treatment and recovery
