Manet and the American Civil War Juliet Wilson-Bareau, David C. Degener, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2003 On June 19 1864 the United States warship Kearsarge sank the Confederate raider Alabama off the coast of Cherbourg France in one of the most celebrated naval engagements of the American Civil War When Kearsarge later anchored off the French resort town of Boulogne sur Mer it was thronged by curious visitors one of whom was the artist Edouard Manet Although he did not witness the historic battle Manet made a painting of it partly as an attempt to regain the respect of his colleagues after having been ridiculed for his works in the 1864 Salon Manet's picture of the naval engagement and his portrait of the victorious Kearsarge belong to a group of his seascapes of Boulogne whose unorthodox perspective and composition would profoundly influence the course of French painting Manet's paintings and watercolors related to the battle are considered in depth alongside numerous prints photographs letters and archival newspaper illustrations that illuminate the history of the episode and in some cases dispel lingering misconceptions Manet's other Boulogne seascapes are also discussed in terms of their complex chronology and evolution A final chapter touches on some of the sources for the seascapes from Old Master paintings to Japanese woodblock
