Virtual Futures

Joan Broadhurst Dixon, Eric Cassidy, 2005-07-20 Virtual Futures explores the ideas that the future lies in its ability to articulate the consequences of an increasingly synthetic and virtual world New technologies like cyberspace the internet and Chaos theory are often discussed in the context of technology and its potential to liberate or in terms of technophobia This collection examines both these ideas while also charting a new and controversial route through contemporary discourses on technology a path that discusses the material evolution and the erotic relation between humans and machines Virtual Futures brings together diverse fields such as cyberfeminism materialist philosophy postmodern fiction computing culture and performance art with essays by Sadie Plant Stelarc and Manuel de Landa to name a few The collection heralds the death of humanism and the ride of posthuman pragmatism The contested zone of debate throughout these essays is the notion of the posthuman or the possibility of the cyborg as the free human Viewed by some writers as a threat to human life and humanism itself others in the collection describe the posthuman as a critical perspective that anticipates the next step in evolution the integration or synthesis of humans and machines organic life and technology This view of technology and information is heavily influenced by Anglo American literature especially cyberpunk Pynchon and Ballard as well as the materialist philosophies of Freud Deleuze and Haraway Virtual Futures provides analyses by both established theorists and the most innovative new voices working in conjunction between the arts and contemporary technology Joy that Lasts Gary

Smalley, Al Janssen, 2009-08-30 Discover what it means to truly trust God and how a deep relationship with him can bring life and joy into marriage Renowned family counselor seminar speaker and author Gary Smalley gives insight into five truths that can transform marriage Sharing openly from his own relationship with his wife Norma Gary shows why both husbands and wives need An independent energy source to recharge their spiritual batteries Someone each can talk to about anything and at any time An understanding of their emotions and what they mean Reassurance that their trials have meaning A shared mission they can strive for together

Adopted Country, Adopted Son Frank Hubbit, 2014-10-17 It is no easy task to adopt a child especially across different races nor is it easy to be adopted Jake and Nkanyiso have to work much harder than either of them probably expected to become a family of two Just as they are becoming settled after some trials Nkanyiso informs his adopted father that a male teacher has been sexually harassing him at school Jake does his best to protect his adopted son but neither of them is really prepared for the onslaught when Jake complains to the school Each of them has to deal with the others different world view Jakes respect for Zulu customs does not extend to funding Nkanyisos mothers training to become an isangoma money is too tight Nkanyiso wants to believe that no spirit can harm him as Jake says but the dark sorcerer hounds him continually and he starts to despair It is a story of bad things happening to ordinary people An adopted father and an adopted son against the background of a country still coming to terms with democracy The
