Kowalski, 2015-08-17 Featuring significant revisions and updates Classic Questions and Contemporary Film An Introduction to Philosophy 2nd Edition uses popular movies as a highly accessible framework for introducing key philosophical concepts Explores 28 films with 18 new to this edition including Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Hotel Rwanda V for Vendetta and Memento Discusses numerous philosophical issues not covered in the first edition including a new chapter covering issues of personal identity the meaningfulness of life and death and existentialism Offers a rich pedagogical framework comprised of key classic readings chapter learning outcomes jargon free argument analysis critical thinking and trivia questions a glossary of terms and textboxes with notes on the movies discussed Revised to be even more accessible to beginning philosophers Film and Philosophy, 2007

Bioethics at the Movies Sandra Shapshay, 2009-01-28 D Thomas R Cole University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston Metapsychology Ending Life Margaret Pabst Battin, 2005-05-05 Margaret Pabst Battin has established a reputation as one of the top philosophers working in bioethics today This work is a sequel to Battin s 1994 volume The Least Worst Death The last ten years have seen fast moving developments in end of life issues from the legalization of physician assisted suicide in Oregon and the Netherlands to furor over proposed restrictions of scheduled drugs used for causing death and the development of NuTech methods of assistance in dying Battin s new collection covers a remarkably wide range of end of life topics including suicide prevention AIDS suicide bombing serpent handling and other religious practices that pose a risk of death genetic prognostication suicide in old age global justice and the duty to die and suicide physician assisted suicide and euthanasia in both American and international contexts As with the earlier volume these new essays are theoretically adroit but draw richly from historical sources fictional techniques and ample factual material Genetic Information Alison K. Thompson, Ruth F. Chadwick, 2007-07-23 It is difficult to think of an example of an advancement in the biological sciences that has had an impact on society similar to that of the new genetics Recent developments in biotechnology have occasioned much discussion among academics professionals and lay people alike In particular many questions and concerns have arisen over the acquisition access and control of genetic information There are several reasons why the new genetics has commanded such widespread attention and why it is now the subject of considerable debate Special reference is given in this volume to the implications of genetic information for five different subject areas eugenics the insurance industry the commercialisation of genetic testing strategies for raising public awareness and the value of theoretical ethical and sociological frameworks in the debate This diverse collection of papers attempts to address and critically discuss issues surrounding the control of and access to genetic information from ethical medical legal and theoretical points of view The first and shortest section of the book attempts to address concerns over the eugenic potential of new biotechnologies It also provides a historical context for the debate for controversy over the subject of eugenics predates the current debate over genetic information by a considerable length of time Indeed by the time the first patent was issued for Chakrabarty's strain of oil eating bacteria in the early 1970s the term eugenics had already acquired strong pejorative connotations

Philosophy Through Film Mary M. Litch, 2002 Philosophy Through Film offers a stimulating new way to explore the basic questions of philosophy Each chapter uses a popular film to examine one such topic from free will and skepticism to personal identity and artificial intelligence in an approachable yet philosophically rigorous manner A wide range of films are discussed including more recent releases like Being John Malkovich Total Recall and Boys Don't Cry and classics like Rashomon and Crimes and Misdemeanors all readily available through major video rental chains This unique and engaging introduction provides an exciting new way to learn about philosophy and connects complicated philosophical questions to the familiar settings of popular culture

(Per)Versions of Love and Hate Renata Salecl, 2000-06-17 Why when we are desperately in love do we endlessly block union with our love object Why do we often destroy what we love most Why do we search out the impossible object Is it that we desire things because they are unavailable and therefore to keep desire alive we need to prevent its fulfillment Renata Salecl explores the distributing and complex relationships between love and hate violence and admiration libidinal and destructive drives through an investigation of phenomenon as diverse as the novels The Age of Innocence and The Remains of the Day classic Hollywood melodramas the Sirens song Ceaucescu Rumania and the Russian performance artist Oleg Kulik who acts like a dog and bites his audience Per Versions of Love and Hate presents a unique and timely intervention in contemporary debates by questioning the legitimacy of the calls for tolerance and respect by multiculturalism and exploring practices such as body mutilation as symptoms of the radical change that has affected subjectivity in contemporary society
