This is a true story of something that happened in December 1997. My brother, Ben, and I were going to spend Christmas with our aunt in Australia. We flew first into Changi Airport, to spend three days visiting Singapore. Lucky we had found a place to stay near the Botanic Gardens, where we visited our first morning. We were astonish at the heat of the sun but we felt cool beneath the trees and the gentle spray from the huge fountain. We spent a hot but enjoy a afternoon shopping in Orchard Road. As we turned the corner on our way back, I gasped.

"Look, it's snowing!" Ben, although, said, snow never falls in Singapore. Then, I saw, where the ground seemed covered with snow, a golden coach outside the hotel.

It had six white horses, which were drive by Santa Claus, in his bright red suit. Artificial snow crystals are falling softly from the lampposts arranged on either side. It was a perfect Christmas snow scene, on the hottest day of the year in Singapore!
