Jessica Foy Donnelly, 2002-11-23 Times are changing at historic house museums and no one is more aware of this than the fourteen contributors to Interpreting Historic House Museums These respected museum professionals consider the history of house museums and the need to look at familiar issues from new perspectives and using new methods If your site isn't using a comprehensive interpretive plan how can you create one While doing so how do you address contemporary issues like race and gender Don't forget the physical either does your property need a landscape plan as well as a furnishings plan And when your visitors arrive to see all your hard work how accessible is your property If the answer is not very what can and should
