Congress. House. Committee on the Judiciary,1972 NHS Complaints Managers Clare Xanthos,2004 This thesis is an interdisciplinary study of the conflicts and tensions in the role of NHS complaints managers The thesis sets out to explore the contradictions inherent in the role of complaints managers and the ways complaints managers deal with these contradictions The interdisciplinary theoretical underpinning of the research is informed by conceptualizations of the complaints manager in the specific socio legal sense of complaints handler third party dispute handler a broader public administration framework of administrator bureaucrat and finally a wide ranging sociological social psychological framework as social actor Thus the thesis draws on an eclectic range of literature from socio legal studies public administration sociology and social psychology It also draws on non theoretical social policy literature in relation to the policy context of the thesis In relation to methodology the research uses a qualitative approach It is based on in depth telephone interviews recorded with thirty NHS complaints managers which were transcribed verbatim and are the focus of systematic analysis The complaints managers interviews are supplemented with documentary analysis of job descriptions and person specifications of NHS complaints managers and email interviews with NHS complaints experts who are not complaint managers who have a specialist knowledge of the complaints manager role Three key areas emerged as the principal findings of the research The complaints manager s role encompasses inherent contradictions regardless of the personal style or individual approach of the complaints manager Complaints managers exhibited opposing stances that is very different responses reactions to the inherent contradictions in their role in relation to organization orientation versus complainant orientation There were different types of complaints managers Accordingly a typology of complaints managers was generated with specific reference to their responses and reactions to the inherent contradictions in their role in terms of complainant orientation versus organization orientation In conclusion the thesis argues that there are without doubt fundamental contradictions in the role of NHS complaints managers in terms of reconciling complainants rights with organizational requirements However ultimately individual complaints managers respond and react very differently to the inherent contradictions in their role Medical Review of Reviews ,1914 Index medicus in v 1 30 1895 1924 Rule the Web Mark Frauenfelder,2007-06-12 In Rule the Web you ll learn how to Browse recklessly free from viruses ads and spyware Turn your browser into a secure and powerful anywhere office Raze your old home page and build a modern Web masterpiece Get the news so fast it ll leave skidmarks on your inbox Fire your broker and let the Internet make you rich Claim your fifteen megabytes of fame with a blog or podcast You use the Web to shop do your banking have fun find facts connect with family share your thoughts with the world and more But aren t you curious about what else the Web can do for you Or if there are better faster or easier ways to do what you re already doing Let the world s foremost technology writer Mark Frauenfelder help you unlock the Internet s potential and open up a richer nimbler and more useful trove of resources and services including EXPRESS YOURSELF SAFELY Create and share blogs podcasts and online video with friends family and millions of potential audience members while protecting yourself from identity theft and fraud DIVIDE AND CONQUER Tackle even the most complex online tasks with ease from whipping up a gorgeous Web site to doing all your work faster and more efficiently within your browser from word processing to investing to planning a party THE RIGHT WAY EVERY TIME Master state of the art techniques for doing everything from selling your house to shopping for electronics with hundreds of carefully researched tips and tricks TIPS FROM THE INSIDERS Mark has asked dozens of the best bloggers around to share their favorite tips on getting the most out of the Web American Monthly Review of Reviews Albert Shaw,1926 A ^AGuide to Evidence-Based Group Work Mark J. The Work of the Service Complaints Commissioner for the Armed Forces Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Defence Committee,2013-02-26 It is accepted that the steady increase in the level of Service complaints made directly to the chain of command or referred by the Commissioner may indicate an increasing level of confidence in the system However there is concern noting the Commissioner s comments regarding a much lower rate of annual increase in contacts about matters that could become Service complaints compared to the first three years that her post had existed This concern is heightened by other organisations such as the Service Families Federations reporting lower levels of contact from Service personnel solicitors reporting an increase in the number of individuals approaching them as they felt the Commissioner had no powers and the increase in the number of people not pursuing matters with the Commissioner after initial contact for the same reason There is also concern that the Commissioner and others are reporting that fears of redundancy among Service personnel appear to be deterring them from making Service complaints It is unacceptable that Service personnel who believe they have a genuine grievance in relation to redundancy or any other matter are reluctant to seek redress and resolution of the matter through the appropriate channels because they fear the consequences of making a complaint As a matter of urgency the MoD and the Commissioner should investigate this matter The Service Complaints Commissioner role is an integral part of honouring the Armed Forces Covenant and whilst there has been progress made in delivering a fair just and efficient Service complaints system there is still a long way to go
