Cases in Innovative Nonprofits Ram A. Cnaan,Diane Vinokur-Kaplan,2014-12-02 Become an innovator in the nonprofit world Student friendly and readable

Cases in Innovative Nonprofits provides readers with current comparative case studies of innovative nonprofit organizations that are meeting the needs of humanity in both the U S and abroad Edited by well known scholars Ram A Cnaan and Diane Vinokur Kaplan this text provides inspiring examples of social entrepreneurs who have instituted new services to meet the needs of both new and long standing social problems Each case features either an unidentified need and its successful response or an existing need that was tackled in a unique and innovative manner The text is purposefully organized into four parts Part 1 Two conceptual chapters give the reader an understanding of what a nonprofit social innovation is and tools to analyze various social innovations in this volume and elsewhere Part 2 Ten cases reveal the innovative formation of new nonprofit organizations Part 3 Three cases emphasize innovation through collaboration Part 4 Five cases demonstrate innovations taking place within an existing nonprofit organization By using a simple identical format for each case this text facilitates student learning through comparative review providing a deeper understanding about the complexity and steps required to achieve nonprofit social innovation

Language Acquisition Studies in Generative Grammar Kenneth Wexler, Teun Hoekstra, Bonnie D. Schwartz, 1994 This is a collection of essays on the native and non native acquisition of syntax within the Principles and Parameters framework In line with current methodology in the study of adult grammars language acquisition is studied here from a comparative perspective The unifying theme is the issue of the initial state of grammatical knowledge For native language the important controversy is that between the Continuity approach which holds that Universal Grammar is essentially constant throughout development and the Maturation approach which maintains that portions of UG are subject to maturation For non native language the theme of initial states concerns the extent of native grammar influence Different views regarding the continuity question are defended in the papers on first language acquisition Evidence from the acquisition of inter alia Bernese Dutch English Finnish French German Icelandic Italian and Japanese is brought to bear on issues pertaining to clause structure null subjects verb position negation Case marking modality non finite sentences root questions long distance questions and scrambling The views defended on the initial state of adult second language acquisition also differ from complete L1 influence to different versions of partial L1 influence While the target language is German in these studies the native language varies Korean Spanish and Turkish Analyses invoke UG principles to account for verb placement null subjects verbal morphology and Case marking Though many issues remain the volume highlights the growing ties between formal linguistics and language acquisition research Such an approach provides the foundation for asking the right questions and putting them to empirical test
