This volume examines English language education policies across ten Asian jurisdictions, the corresponding teacher education policies and how these policies affect teachers and teacher educators. Each chapter covers a different jurisdiction and is written by a scholar engaged in the implementation of government policies on English language and teacher education, providing the reader with insiders' perspectives. It gives a fascinating glimpse into the remarkable similarities in the challenges posed to these countries and the critical issues that have emerged from the local responses despite their markedly different socioeconomic, political, cultural and historical backgrounds.

Literature Education in the Asia-Pacific Chin Ee Loh, Suzanne S. Choo, Catherine Beavis, 2018-03-29. The continual rise of English as a global lingua franca has meant that English literature, both as a discipline and as a tool in ESL and EFL classrooms, is being used in varied ways outside the inner circle of English. This edited collection provides an overview of English literature education in the Asia Pacific in global times, bringing to international attention a rich understanding of the trends, issues and challenges specific to nations within the Asia Pacific region. Comprising contributions from Australia, China, Hong Kong, India, Indonesia, Malaysia, Philippines, Singapore and Vietnam, the collection addresses the diversity of learners in different national cultural and teaching contexts. In doing so, it provides insights into historical and current trends in literature education, foregrounds specific issues and challenges in policymaking and implementation, presents practical matters concerning text selection, use of literature in the language classroom, innovative practices in literature education and raises pressing and important questions about the nature, purpose and importance of literature education in global times.

Global Perspectives on Education Research, Vol. II Liesel Ebersöhn, Ingrid Gogolin, 2023-05-31. Presenting a wide range of new research from the World Education Research Association (WERA) affiliated scholars pertaining to democracy and education, this volume includes topics such as school readiness in Mongolia, high stakes teacher evaluation policy in Japan and family and community involvement in global educational advocacy. This collection arrives at a time of extreme global challenges, leaving researchers, teachers, students, families and policymakers without a baseline of how to act, react and be proactive to stem the chronic flow of disruption to global education systems. These challenges require researchers worldwide to consider how evidence can support individuals and systems to buffer against extreme global health distress and conflict whilst simultaneously supporting the continued functioning of education systems and processes. Such processes must allow students, teachers, leaders, administrators and members of the educational communities to retain positive self-esteem and maintain supportive relationships and systems that provide the appropriate conditions for such processes. Global Perspectives on Education Research pulls together contributions from different contexts and cultures to distil vistas and research results that can enlighten a worldwide community of researchers in education.

Each chapter is carefully structured and includes clear themes with introductory notes by the editor. The main focus is on the cognitive development of bilinguals and how they promote cultural diversity, presenting how bilingual education and second language teaching within the socio-political and multicultural landscape are interconnected. It discusses significant concepts such as translanguaging, an innovative approach that transcends traditional language boundaries, and the role of Multilingual Education (MLE) in shaping the future of learning. Research also focusses on macro level issues such as globalization and minority language preservation and micro level strategies for bilingual classrooms. In addition, it explores topics such as Dual Language schools, the economic benefits of bilingualism and debates on language loss and bilingual education policy in different countries. Reconceptualizing English Education in a Multilingual Society Isabel Pefianco Martin, 2018-03-01. This book brings together chapters that describe, investigate and analyze the place of English in education in multilingual Philippines. Unlike most studies on languages in education which take a neutral de-contextualized stance, this volume takes a pluricentric view of the English language by positioning it in relation to its varieties as well as to other languages in the country. Because of the changing realities of English in the Philippines, traditional assumptions about the language as monolithic and unchanging, as well as about how it should be taught and learned, need to be revisited and re-conceptualized. Bilingual Educational Publications in Print, 1983. Understanding Philippine Culture and Society Ryan Vilorio, Ed.D., Understanding Philippine Culture and Society: Values, Norms and Way of Life offers a comprehensive exploration of the rich and diverse cultural landscape of the Philippines.
