Training the 21st Century Police Officer Russell W. Glenn, Barbara Raymond, Dionne Barnes-Proby, Elizabeth Williams, John Christian, 2003-08-08 Restructure the LAPD Training Group to allow the centralization of planning instructor qualification evaluation and retention and more efficient use of resources     The Truce Karen Umemoto, 2018-07-05 This ethnography of a gang war in the Los Angeles neighborhood of Oakwood just blocks from the famed Venice Beach boardwalk provides a rare eyewitness account of the urban violence pervasive in the recent history of the United States With seventeen people killed and more than fifty injured the hostilities over ten months in 1993 and 1994 marked the peak of gang violence in the history of Los Angeles a city once labeled the gang capital of the nation The conflict began as a quarrel among individuals some of whom had gang affiliations Over time the feud engulfed families and soon grew into a sustained clash between African American and Latino gangs Eventually victims fell who were not members of opposing gangs but who fit certain racial and gender profiles The conflict began to take on the attributes of what one local newspaper sensationalized as a race war Karen Umemoto lived nearby during this conflict and undertook two years of ethnographic research during and immediately following the spate of killings She now offers a nuanced analysis of the trajectory and eventual end of this acute crisis Her interviews with gang members neighborhood residents business leaders police officers and gang intervention workers reveal the complexity of contemporary American urban conflict The Truce highlights the differences in interpretations among combatants witnesses and law enforcement agents and others whose actions often had unintended consequences Drawing on her experience living in multicultural Los Angeles and on the latest scholarship in a wide variety of disciplines Umemoto provides much needed guidance for policymakers and concerned members of the public faced with violence in an ever changing urban landscape

Report of the Independent Commission on the Los Angeles Police Department Warren Christopher,1998-05 In the wake of the Rodney King Los Angeles Police incident the Independent Commission on the L A Police Dept was created to examine any aspect of the law enforcement structure in L A that might cause or contribute to the excessive use of force This reports presents the results of this unprecedented inquiry conducted through witness testimony interviews of private citizens and current and retired police officers computerized studies of force reports and complaints filed by the public reviews of patrol car communications and examination of the files in civil damage cases Recommendations are presented in detail

Liberals with Attitude Danny Goldberg,2025-10-07 The dramatic and captivating story of an unlikely coalition that formed in the wake of the Rodney King beating to challenge the destructive reign of Los Angeles police chief Daryl Gates LIBERALS WITH ATTITUDE DOCUMENTS THE SIXTEEN MONTHS IN 1991 92 between the brutal beating of Rodney King by four police officers that was captured on a home video camera and the resignation of LAPD chief Daryl Gates Gates was reviled by the local Black and civil liberties communities because of the pattern of racism and brutality in the department and he was uniquely powerful because of the structure of the Los Angeles City Charter and the secret files he kept on local politicians The effort to get Gates to step down after thirteen years as chief and to amend the City Charter to prevent another unaccountable chief from amassing that much power was led by Los Angeles mayor Tom Bradley a former LAPD officer and the first Black mayor of the city To overcome Gates s entrenched power Bradley assembled a team that included future US secretary of state Warren Christopher the local ACLU Congresswoman Maxine Waters and activists who saw the struggle against Gates as an important chapter in the civil rights movement Much of the local media especially the Los Angeles Times was supportive of Bradley s agenda as was the burgeoning gangsta rap culture of LA much of which emerged in reaction to the LAPD Author Danny Goldberg was the chair of the ACLU Foundation of Southern California during those years and was personally acquainted with the leaders of the fight against Gates He interviewed several dozen people who are still alive and got access to thousands of pages of documents among the papers of Stanley Sheinbaum who was married to the heiress of the Warner Bros film fortune Sheinbaum was chosen by Mayor Bradley to be the president of the Los Angeles Police Commission with the specific mission of getting Gates out of office Goldberg s insider saga demonstrates that cooperation between the political left and center is required to overcome white grievance and unaccountable power complete teaching and learning package      Blue Joe Domanick, 2016-08-23 American policing is in crisis Here award winning investigative journalist Joe Domanick reveals the troubled history of American policing over the past quarter century He begins in the early 1990s with the beating of Rodney King and the L A riots when the Los Angeles Police Department was caught between a corrupt and racist past and the demands of a rapidly changing urban population Across the country American cities faced similar challenges to law and order In New York William J Bratton was spearheading the reorganization of the New York City Transit Police and later the 35 000 strong New York Police Department His efforts resulted in a dramatic decrease in crime yet introduced highly controversial policing strategies In 2002 when Bratton was named the LAPD s new chief he implemented the lessons learned in New York to change a department that previously had been impervious to reform Blue ends in 2015 with the LAPD on its unfinished road to reform as events in Los Angeles New York Baltimore and Ferguson Missouri raise alarms about the very strategies Bratton pioneered and about aggressive racial profiling and the militarization of police departments throughout the United States Domanick tells his story through the lives of the people who lived it Along with Bratton he introduces William Parker the legendary LAPD police chief Tom Bradley the first black mayor of Los Angeles and Charlie Beck the hard nosed ex gang cop who replaced Bratton as LAPD chief The result is both intimate and expansive a gripping narrative that asks big questions about what constitutes good and bad policing and how best to prevent crime control police abuse and ease tensions between the police and the powerless Blue is not only a page turning read but an essential addition to our scholarship Adapted from book jacket      Revitalizing Communities ,1997

Police Interrogation and American Justice Richard A. Leo, 2008-02-28 Read him his rights We all recognize this line from cop dramas But what happens afterward In this book Leo sheds light on a little known corner of our criminal justice system the police interrogation An important study of the criminal justice system this book provides interesting answers and raises some unsettling questions      California. City Limits* Josh Sides, 2004-01-27 In 1964 an Urban League survey ranked Los Angeles as the most desirable city for African Americans to live in In 1965 the city burst into flames during one of the worst race riots in the nation s history How the city came to such a pass embodying both the best and worst of what urban America offered black migrants from the South is the story told for the first time in this history of modern black Los Angeles A clear eyed and compelling look at black struggles for equality in L A s neighborhoods schools and workplaces from the Great Depression to our day L A City Limits critically refocuses the ongoing debate about the origins of America s racial and urban crisis Challenging previous analysts near exclusive focus on northern rust belt cities devastated by de industrialization Josh Sides asserts that the cities to which black southerners migrated profoundly affected how they fared He shows how L A s diverse racial composition dispersive geography and dynamic postwar economy often created opportunities and limits quite different from those encountered by blacks in the urban North
