The marriage between Zionism and the Christian Right and its influence on the White House and American foreign policy especially in the Middle East is highlighted. This baseless contorted marriage spreads Islamophobia in America and threatens the solidarity of the American nation. The distorted political and religious fabric of America and its bad influence on America and the Middle East is also pinpointed. Downfall shows that political Islam which is mainly a response to the occupation and exploitation of the Arab land by the West is not the only threat to world peace but also political Christianity which America adopts against the Muslim world. By relying only on military power and political interest to run the globe leaving behind thousands of victims and ruined homes America is travelling away from its integrity and forgetting the fact that she has drawn upon herself Allah's wrath. Economic deterioration has been snapping her feeble body from the inside for several decades now. The collapse of America's huge global corporations and stock market, civil unrest, drought, natural disasters and the deterioration in America's ethical manners on all fronts are clear examples of such divine wrath. The perpetrators seem to forget that Allah does not love oppression and that His eyes sleep not. The events of the novel are played out by Omar the Egyptian commando who was assigned later as the Egyptian ambassador to the United States and Elizabeth the daughter of the President of the United States, a human rights activist who shared with Omar a sincere love and the fight for establishing peace and justice in a torn world.
