

FAKE NEWS

Gender Representations in Commercials - Original and Translation Stavroula (Stave) Vergopoulou, 2024-07-26 Within the interdisciplinary framework of gender translation and advertising this study investigates gender representations of fictional characters in original and translated audiovisual advertisements Stavroula Stave Vergopoulou discusses various manifestations of sexism on verbal and or nonverbal levels She also explores the ways in which translators can reduce or mitigate linguistic sexism in advertising translation to foster gender fair language use Her research draws on sociocultural linguistics and particularly on a social constructionist approach to gender identities The exploration of the relationship s of gender and advertising and the discussion of the key concept of translation form the theoretical basis for the empirical research work For this English and German commercials from 2017 to 2020 have been examined along with their English German and Greek target texts

A Brief History of History Jeremy Black, 2023-08-22 In A Brief History of History acclaimed historian Jeremy Black seeks to reinvigorate and redefine our ideas about history The stories we tell about the past are a crucial aspect of all cultures However while the traditional storytelling process what we think of as history in the proper sense is useful it is also misleading not least because it leads to the repetition of bias and misinformation Black suggests that the conventional idea of history and historians is constructed too narrowly as it fails to engage with the broad nature of lived experience By focusing on a singular idea or story within the history being explored we fail to understand the interconnectivity of the everyday experience A Brief History of History challenges accepted norms of the historical perspective and offers a view of human history that will surprise many and perhaps infuriate some But above all it is a history of historians written for this moment in time a time when the traditional Eurocentric approach to history now appears wholly inappropriate

A Brief History of Everything Wireless Petri Launiainen, 2018-06-06 Since the discovery of electromagnetic waves less than 150 years ago the application of wireless communications technology has not only revolutionized our daily lives but also fundamentally changed the course of world history A Brief History of Everything Wireless charts the fascinating story of wireless communications The book leads the reader on an intriguing journey of personal triumphs and stinging defeats relating the prominent events individuals and companies involved in each progressive leap in technology with a particular focus on the phenomenal impact of each new invention on society Beginning at the early days of spark gap transmitters this tale touches on the emergence of radio and television broadcasting as well as radio navigation and radar before moving on to the rise of satellite near field and light based communications Finally the development of wireless home networks and the explosive growth of modern cellular technologies are revealed complete with a captivating account of their corresponding company histories and behind the scenes battles over standards For those wishing to peek behind the magic curtain of friendly user interfaces and clever engineering and delve further into various processes underlying the ubiquitous technology we depend upon yet take for granted the book also contains special TechTalk chapters that explain the theoretical basics in an intuitive way Books-In-Brief: Emerging Epistemologies Ziauddin

Sardar,2025-06-10 Our established age old notions of knowledge have ceased to be meaningful in postnormal times What we define as true knowledge and the ways in which we create it have changed radically The emergence of Big Data and Artificial Intelligence as well as fake news alternative facts deep fake and post truth have changed the nature of knowledge production Established disciplines such as economics sociology anthropology political science have lost their significance Revengeful capitalism based on profit driven algorithms has not only led to environmental destruction but has also ruined our understanding of what actually constitutes knowledge In an era that defines societies by questions of knowledge it becomes necessary and urgent to ask how is knowledge produced how is it distributed and who decides what is true knowledge and what is not Emerging Epistemologies explores the changing nature of knowledge production and investigates how emerging epistemologies are transforming our perceptions of the present and the future The contributors to the volume examine digital landscapes zombie disciplines higher education the role of metaphysics and epistemological justice and argue that epistemology does not exist in a vacuum but is determined and embedded in the worldview and culture of society The chaos and contradiction that accompanies our increasingly complex world requires us to see through the smog of ignorance and seek new ways of thinking and creating knowledge that promotes sustainability diversity social justice and appreciates different ways of knowing being and doing Public History of Education. A Brief Introduction Gianfranco

Bandini,2024-02-06 Is historical knowledge important for education How can we build a shared historical knowledge with schools communities and education professionals The book responds to these questions by suggesting the public history approach as applied in education and more generally to all professions that are based on human relations The public history of education refers directly to North American experiences but at the same time it is part of a process of European cultural acceptance and re elaboration that has one of its main points of reference in the Italian Public History Association The objective is not to make history for the general public but to make public history with all those interested in a collaborative and participative context in the quest for meaningful knowledge directly related to the current and challenging needs of our society

Books-In-Brief: Muslim Societies in Postnormal Times Ziauddin Sardar, Scott Jordan, Jordi Serra, 2022-01-01

Where will Muslim societies be tomorrow The world is increasingly and constantly changing making it hard to keep up This makes the state much more dire and troublesome for those already marginalised particularly Muslim societies Normal is no longer capable of upholding the promise of tomorrow's certainty These are postnormal times In this storm of ignorance and uncertainty Muslim societies stand to lose the most But this is not destiny In the cultivation of a new type of literacy futures literacy there resides a hope Muslim Societies in Postnormal Times offers an alternative where we can rescue and decolonise our futures Sardar Serra and Jordan take an open and plural approach to the future revealing the true potentials that lie before us Through detailed analysis of contemporary trends the road to destruction is revealed Through identifying and exploring emerging issues agency through options can allow for positive change And in the extrapolation of these ideas into scenarios the authors pave the way for us to navigate our own preferred futures Their study challenges the reader to think about the future in a new way redefining the monolithic future as three tomorrows Extended Present Familiar Futures and Unthought Futures along the way ever watchful for Black Swans Black Elephants and the illustrious Black Jellyfish that could disrupt the path ahead The authors pull no punches in critically evaluating the possibilities and nightmares that could potentially befall Muslim societies Through a display of creativity and imagination this book looks beyond the conventional to illuminate impacts in the context of the complex interconnected world we find ourselves in This informative and enlightening text will push readers to see beyond popular yet native notions of present and future In the exposition of the reader's ignorance and uncertainty they will begin to look for the unthought and take agency in recolonising and navigating their preferred tomorrow

Unsettling Translation Mona Baker, 2022-05-31 This collection engages with translation and interpreting from a diverse but complementary range of perspectives in dialogue with the seminal work of Theo Hermans A foundational figure in the field Hermans's scholarly engagement with translation spans several key areas including history of translation metaphor norms ethics ideology methodology and the critical reconceptualization of the positioning of the translator and of translation itself as a social and hermeneutic practice Those he has mentored or inspired through his lectures and pioneering publications over the years are now household names in the field with many represented in this volume They come together here both to critically re examine translation as a social political and conceptual site of negotiation and to celebrate his contributions to the field The volume opens with an extended introduction and personal tribute by the editor which situates Hermans s work within the broader development of critical thinking about translation from the 1970s onward This is followed by five parts each addressing a theme that has been broadly taken up by Theo Hermans in his own work translational epistemologies historicizing translation performing translation centres and peripheries and digital encounters This is important reading for translation scholars researchers and advanced students on courses covering key trends and theories in translation studies and those engaging with the history of the discipline The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

The Roots of Fake News Brian Winston, Matthew Winston, 2020-09-01 The Roots of Fake News argues that fake news is not a problem caused by the power of the internet or by the failure of good journalism to assert itself Rather it is within the news s ideological foundations professionalism neutrality and most especially objectivity that the true roots of the current crisis are to be found Placing the concept of media objectivity in a fuller historical context this book examines how current perceptions of a crisis in journalism actually fit within a long history of the ways news media have avoided obscured or simply ignored the difficulties involved in promising objectivity let alone truth The book examines journalism s relationships with other spheres of human endeavour science law philosophy concerned with the pursuit of objective truth to argue that the rising tide of fake news is not an attack on the traditional ideologies which have supported journalism Rather it is an inevitable result of their inherent flaws and vulnerabilities This is a valuable resource for students and scholars of journalism and history alike who are interested in understanding the historical roots and philosophical context of a fiercely contemporary issue

Social Media Analytics, Strategies and Governance Hamid Jahankhani, Stefan Kendzierskyj, Reza Montasari, Nishan Chelvachandran, 2022-08-18 Social media has spread rapidly on the global stage driving consumers attention and influence both consciously and subconsciously Whilst this type of platform may have been initially designed as a tool for open communication and expression it is also being utilized as a digital tool with widescale use cases The intelligence explosion information overload and disinformation play a significant part regarding individual group and country perceptions The complex nature of this data explosion created an increasing demand and use of artificial intelligence AI and machine learning ML to help provide big insights to big data AI and ML enable the analysis and dissemination of vast amounts of data however the ungoverned pace at which AI and autonomous systems have been deployed has created unforeseen problems Many algorithms and AI systems have been trained on limited or unverified datasets creating inbuilt and unseen biases Where these algorithmic tools have been deployed in high impact systems there are documented occurrences of disastrous decision making and outcomes that have negatively impacted people and communities Little to no work had been conducted in its vulnerability and ability to exploit AI itself So AI and autonomous systems whilst being a force for societal good could have the potential to create and exacerbate societies greatest challenges This is a cohesive volume that addresses challenging problems and presents a range of innovative approaches and discussion

A Brief History of Fascist Lies Federico Finchelstein,2022-08-01 There is no better book on fascism s complex and vexed relationship with truth Jason Stanley author of How Fascism Works The Politics of Us and Them In this short companion to his book From Fascism to Populism in History world renowned historian Federico Finchelstein explains why fascists regarded simple and often hateful lies as truth and why so many of their followers believed the falsehoods Throughout the history of the twentieth century many supporters of fascist ideologies regarded political lies as truth incarnated in their leader From Hitler to Mussolini fascist leaders capitalized on lies as the base of their power and popular sovereignty This history continues in the present when lies again seem to increasingly replace empirical truth Now that actual news is presented as fake news and false news becomes government policy A Brief History of Fascist Lies urges us to remember that the current talk of post truth has a long political and intellectual lineage that we cannot ignore

Taking Stock of Regional Democratic Trends in Asia and the Pacific Before and

During the COVID-19 Pandemic International IDEA,2020-12-22 This GSoD In Focus Special Brief provides an overview of the state of democracy in Asia and the Pacific at the end of 2019 prior to the outbreak of the pandemic and assesses some of the preliminary impacts that the pandemic has had on democracy in the region in 2020 Key fact and findings include Prior to the outbreak of the COVID 19 pandemic countries across Asia and the Pacific faced a range of democratic challenges Chief among these were continuing political fragility violent conflict recurrent military interference in the political sphere enduring hybridity deepening autocratization creeping ethnonationalism advancing populist leadership democratic backsliding shrinking civic space the spread of disinformation and weakened checks and balances The crisis conditions engendered by the pandemic risk further entrenching and or intensifying the negative democratic trends observable in the region prior to the COVID 19 outbreak Across the region governments have been using the conditions created by the pandemic to expand executive power and restrict individual rights Aspects of democratic practice that have been significantly impacted by anti pandemic measures include the exercise of fundamental rights notably freedom of assembly and free speech Some countries have also seen deepened religious polarization and discrimination Women vulnerable groups and ethnic and religious minorities have been disproportionately affected by the pandemic and discriminated against in the enforcement of lockdowns There have been disruptions of electoral processes increased state surveillance in some countries and increased influence of the military This is particularly concerning in new fragile or backsliding democracies which risk further eroding their already fragile democratic bases As in other regions however the pandemic has also led to a range of innovations and changes in the way democratic actors such as parliaments political parties electoral commissions civil society organizations and courts conduct their work In a number of countries for example government ministries electoral commissions legislators health officials and civil society have developed innovative new online tools for keeping the public informed about national efforts to combat the pandemic And some legislatures are figuring out new ways to hold government to account in the absence of real time parliamentary meetings The consideration of political regime type in debates around ways of containing the pandemic also assumes particular relevance in Asia and the Pacific a region that houses high performing democracies such as New Zealand and the Republic of Korea South Korea a mid range performer Taiwan and also non democratic regimes such as China Singapore and Viet Nam all of which have as of December 2020 among the lowest per capita deaths from COVID 19 in the world While these countries have all so far managed to contain the virus with fewer fatalities than in the rest of the world the authoritarian regimes have done so at a high human rights cost whereas the democracies have done so while adhering to democratic principles proving that the pandemic can effectively be fought through democratic means and does not necessarily require a trade off between public health and democracy The massive disruption induced by the pandemic can be an unparalleled opportunity for democratic learning change and renovation in the region Strengthening democratic institutions and processes across the region needs to go hand in hand with curbing the pandemic Rebuilding societies and economic structures in its aftermath will likewise require strong sustainable and healthy democracies capable of tackling the gargantuan challenges ahead The review of the state of democracy during the COVID 19 pandemic in 2020 uses qualitative analysis and data of events and trends in the region collected through International IDEA s Global Monitor of COVID 19 s Impact on Democracy and Human Rights an initiative co funded by the European Union
