A cross-cultural exploration of truth, forgiveness, reconciliation and healing Doris H. Gray, 2020-08-21 In this small volume Doris H Gray shares her reflections on human responses to trauma especially when it is kept secret and on attempts at healing that transcend boundaries She offers insights on how individuals recover from trauma in particular when official procedures for redress and professional help are not available She challenges conventional notions of forgiveness and reconciliation which often put the pressure on victims to move forward Most of all Gray finds that victims efforts to come to terms with trauma are not disconnected but are related across time culture religion and geography Part of this book narrates Gray's personal experiences of growing up with her father who was a Holocaust survivor the sudden death of her oldest child her own rape and soon thereafter the death of her husband She describes how these events shaped her scholarly research especially that on women who were victims of torture and extreme discrimination during the Tunisian dictatorship of Zine El Abidine Ben Ali 1989 2011 It is the sum of these experiences that lays the foundation for this brave book Dr Doris H Gray was Director of the Hillary Clinton Center for Women's Empowerment at Al Akhawayn University in Ifrane Morocco where she also served as Professor of Women and Gender Studies Before moving to Morocco she taught in the Gender Studies Program and the Department of Modern Languages at Florida State University in Tallahassee Florida USA Her research focuses on gender and women s rights and transitional justice in Tunisia Morocco and Algeria She has previously published three books Havis, 2021-01-15 Cult Films Taboo and Transgression looks at nine decades of cult films history within American culture By highlighting three films per decade including a brief summary of the decade s identity and sensibility the book investigates the quality ironies and spirit of cult film evolution The twenty seven films selected for this study are analyzed for story content and in their respective transgressions regarding social aesthetic and political codes Characteristic of this book is the notion that many exciting genres make up cult films including horror sci fi fantasy film noir and black comedy Further the book reaches out to several foreign film directors over the decades in order to view cult films as an intentional art form Political and ideological controversies are covered arresting back story details that lend perspective on a film fill out the analysis and the historic framework for many film titles The book by emphasizing the condensed survey over decades and by choosing outstanding titles differs from other general studies on cult films Nutrition During Pregnancy and the Postpartum Period California.
