Simultaneous Identities Uma Pradhan, 2020-12-03 The recent socio political changes in Nepal have brought assimilationist notions of Nepali nationalism under a tight scrutiny and drawn attention to more plural inclusive and diverse notions of Nepalianness However both assimilationist and pluralist visions continue to remain normative in their approach and often posit ethnic and national identity in opposition to each other Drawing on the everyday practices in the two schools this book illustrates that social actors in minority language education did not necessarily select between minority identity and national identity but instead made simultaneous claims to more than one social identity by discursively positioning ethnic identity as national identity It builds on the notion of simultaneity to illustrate that it is through the unresolved co presences of apparently contradictory ways that people maintain their multi layered identities By arguing for an analytical necessity to adopt relational approach it aims to complicate the neat compartmentalisation of identities

Psychology and Mathematics Education Gila Hanna, Laura Macchi, Karin Binder, Laura Martignon, Katharina Loibl, 2023-09-05 Modern Mathematics is constructed rigorously through proofs based on truths which are either axioms or previously proven theorems Thus it is par excellence a model of rational inquiry Links between Cognitive Psychology and Mathematics Education have been particularly strong during the last decades Indeed the Enlightenment view of the rational human mind that reasons makes decisions and solves problems based on logic and probabilities was shaken during the second half of the twentieth century Cognitive psychologists discovered that humans thoughts and actions often deviate from rules imposed by strict normative theories of inference Yet these deviations should not be called errors as Cognitive Psychologists have demonstrated these deviations may be either valid heuristics that succeed in the environments in which humans have evolved or biases that are caused by a lack of adaptation to abstract information formats Humans as the cognitive psychologist and economist Herbert Simon claimed do not usually optimize but rather satisfice even when solving problem This Research Topic aims at demonstrating that these insights have had a decisive impact on Mathematics Education We want to stress that we are concerned with the view of bounded rationality that is different from the one espoused by the heuristics and biases program In Simon s bounded rationality and its direct descendant ecological rationality rationality is understood in terms of cognitive success in the world correspondence rather than in terms of conformity to content free norms of coherence e g transitivity      Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander,Jennifer Holm,Egan J Chernoff,2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step      Primary Mathematics for Trainee Teachers Marcus Witt,2014-11-19 With chapter sequencing following the new Curriculum this book supports trainee Primary school teachers to make use of the opportunities presented in the new National Curriculum for effective and engaging Mathematics teaching Covering all of the areas of the new Curriculum for primary mathematics and offering insight into effective teaching this book helps students connect what they need to teach with how it can be taught Exploring opportunities in the new curriculum for creative and imaginative teaching it shows readers how to capitalize on opportunities to develop children s reasoning and problem solving skills It explores how to make links between mathematics and children s lived experiences to enhance their learning and enables trainees to develop an ability to plan with discernment making the most of existing thinking and research as well as building confidence in adapting and customizing ideas Includes the full National Curriculum Programme of Study for Maths key stages 1 and 2 as a useful reference for trainee teachers Other books in this series include Primary English for Trainee Teachers      22 Topic-wise CTET Paper 2 Mathematics& Science Previous Year Solved Papers (2024 - 2011) Class 6 - 8 Teachers | Child Development & Pedagogy, English & Hindi Language Disha Experts,2024-10-22 The First edition of the book 22 TOPIC WISE CTET Paper 2 Mathematics Science Solved Papers 2024 2011 English Edition contains detailed Solutions to the Past 22 Solved Papers of the CTET exam from 2011 to 2024 The past 22 CTET Solved papers included are June 2011 Jan Section II mathematics has 15 Topics Section III Science has 16 Topics Section IV English 11 Topics Section V Hindi has 10 Topics The detailed solutions are provided immediately after each topic Solutions are provided for each question The languages covered in the tests are English 1st language and Hindi 2nd language The book is 100% useful for UPTET HTET MPTET CGTET UKTET HPTET BTET PTET and other STET Exam      International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties Annemarie Fritz,Vitor Geraldi Haase,Pekka Räsänen,2019-01-30 This comprehensive volume provides teachers researchers and education professionals with cutting edge knowledge developed in the last decades by the educational behavioural and neurosciences integrating cognitive developmental and socioeconomic approaches to deal with the problems children face in learning mathematics The neurocognitive mechanisms and the cognitive processes underlying acquisition of arithmetic abilities and their significance for education have been the subject of intense research in the last few decades but the most part of this research has been conducted in non applied settings and there s still a deep discrepancy between the level of scientific knowledge and its implementation into actual educational settings Now it s time to bring the results from the laboratory to the classroom Apart from bringing the theoretical discussions to educational settings the volume presents a wide range of methods for early detection of children with risks in mathematics learning and strategies to develop effective interventions based on innovative cognitive test instruments It also provides insights to translate research knowledge into public policies in order to address socioeconomic issues And it does so from an international perspective dedicating a whole section to the cultural diversity of mathematics learning difficulties in different parts of the world All of this makes the International Handbook of Mathematical Learning Difficulties an essential tool for those involved in the daily struggle to prepare the future generations to succeed in the global knowledge society

Research for Educational Change Jill Adler,Anna Sfard,2016-06-17 Research for Educational Change presents ways in which educational research can fulfil its commitments to educational practice Focussing its discussion within the context of mathematics education it argues that while research generated insights can have beneficial effects on learning and teaching the question of how these effects are to be generated and sustained is far from evident The question of how to turn research into educational improvement is discussed here in the context of learning and teaching hindered by poverty and social injustice In the first part of the book four teams of researchers use different methodologies while analysing the same corpus of data collected in a South African mathematics classroom In the second part each of these teams makes a specific proposal about what can be done and how so that its research generated insights have a tangible beneficial impact on what is happening in mathematical classrooms Combining two discourses that of researchers speaking to one another and that of researchers communicating their insights to those responsible for educational practice the book deals with the perennial question of communication between those who study educational processes and those who are directly responsible for teacher education educational research and classroom practices This book will be key reading for postgraduates researchers and academics in education and particularly in the areas of mathematics education education research teacher education and classroom practice It will also appeal to teacher educators practitioners and undergraduate students interested in educational research
