The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San Jacob Cloete, 2023-11-22 The Attempted Erasure of the Khoekhoe and San delves into the complex issue of problematic coloured identity and the ongoing erasure of the Khoekhoe and San people in South Africa. Despite the end of apartheid, this erasure continues to persist today, starting as far back as 1652. There were two types of erasure: that took place through genocide and bureaucratic means. While the former is acknowledged by President Thabo Mbeki in his 'I Am an African' speech, the latter began in 1828 with Ordinance 50 in the Cape Colony. From this point, the Khoekhoe and San were bureaucratically erased, culminating in the 1950 Population Registration Act. Despite these attempts, the Khoekhoe and San people resisted and fought for their identity, resulting in their continued existence in the present day. This book documents their painful journey, highlighting their struggles against subjugation and erasure since 1652.

Directory of Physics, Astronomy & Geophysics Staff, 2006 Directory of Physics, Astronomy & Geophysics Staff 1997 American Institute of Physics, American Institute of Physics, 1998-03-24 Here is the most complete directory of physics organizations in the United States, professional degree granting and research. It is a veritable Who's Who of institutions and individuals in the physical sciences. Listed are North American academic institutions and departments granting degrees in physics and related fields, industrial research and development centers, small R & D companies, consulting firms, and professional practices, Federally funded R & D centers, and government agencies, University-affiliated and other research institutes, Hospitals, medical schools, and other institutions. Power-Sharing Executives Joanne McEvoy, 2015 To achieve peaceful interethnic relations and a stable democracy in the aftermath of violent conflict, institutional designers may task political elites representing previously warring sides with governing a nation together. In Power-Sharing Executives, Joanne McEvoy asks whether certain institutional rules can promote cooperation between political parties representing the contending groups in a deeply divided place. Examining the different experiences of postconflict power sharing in Bosnia, Macedonia, and Northern Ireland, she finds that with certain incentives and norms in place power sharing can indeed provide political space for an atmosphere of joint governance or accommodation between groups Power Sharing Executives explains how the institutional design process originated and evolved in each of the three nations and investigates the impact of institutional rules on interethnic cooperation McEvoy also looks at the role of external actors such as international organizations in persuading political elites to agree to share power and to implement power sharing peace agreements This comparative analysis of institutional formation and outcomes shows how coalitions of varying inclusivity or with different rules can bring about a successful if delicate consociationality in practice Power Sharing Executives offers prescriptions for policymakers facing the challenges of mediating peace in a postconflict society and sheds light on the wider study of peace promotion Zeitschrift für Naturforschung ,1960
