Subalternity and Difference Gyanendra Pandey, 2013-03 Focusing on concepts that have been central to investigation of the history and politics of marginalized and disenfranchised populations this book asks how discourses of subalternity and difference simultaneously constitute and interrupt each other The authors explore the historical production of conditions of marginality and minority and challenge simplistic notions of difference as emanating from culture rather than politics They return thereby to a question that feminist and other oppositional movements have raised of how modern societies and states take account of and manage social economic and cultural difference The different contributions investigate this question in a variety of historical and political contexts from India and Ecuador to Britain and the USA The resulting study is of invaluable interest to students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines including History Anthropology Gender and Queer and Colonial and Postcolonial Studies     Recent Advances in Pediatrics - Special Volume 23 - Pediatric Gastroenterology, Hepatology and Nutrition Suraj Gupte, 2013-06-30 Special Volume 23 of Recent Advances in Pediatrics is a compilation of reviews bringing trainees and physicians fully up to date with key developments in paediatric gastroenterology hepatology and nutrition Divided into four sections Part 1 discusses issues in paediatric gastroenterology such as irritable bowel syndrome celiac disease abdominal pain and gastrointestinal endoscopy Part 2 examines hepatologic disorders that may be encountered in children including acute liver failure viral hepatitis and liver transplantation Parts 3 and 4 cover nutrition and pharmacotherapy Presented in an easy to follow format Special Volume 23 follows a multidisciplinary approach Each chapter finishes with a summary of key learning points and extensive references for further reading Clinical photographs illustrations and tables enhance learning Key points New updated volume presenting latest developments in paediatric gastroenterology hepatology and nutrition Multidisciplinary approach easy to follow format Extensive references and key learning points summarised in each chapter Includes contributions from experts in London Liverpool and California     CHANGING SOCIETY CHALLENGES AND STRATEGIES Dr. B. Venkata Subba Reddy & A. Jyotsna, 2016-05-01 The most common view of the relationship between social work and society seems to be the perspective that social work is an intermediary profession acting between the individual and society In this intermediary capacity social work is somehow able to act in ways that are in the best interests of both the individual and society seeking to empower the individual and to improve society Critics of social work reject the view of social workers as neutral and objective and see them rather as agents of social control largely acting in ways that perpetuate existing inequalities Social workers are or can be agents and catalysts of social change as intermediaries objectively balancing the pressures of social control and social change
