Bringing the English Curriculum to Life David Didau, 2024-04-12 Bringing the English Curriculum to Life builds on David Didau's groundbreaking book Making Meaning in English by showing how the principles of the original book can be applied in schools and classrooms. Drawing together experiences of designing teaching supporting and assessing English across the schools within Ormiston Academies Trust OAT, this book demonstrates what an ambitious, coherently sequenced, broad and balanced English curriculum with successful adaptation for students with SEND can look like in practice. Designed around the explicit teaching of the powerful conceptual knowledge students need to master the discipline, the book offers a fully resourced English curriculum packed with teaching suggestions and examples of high quality practice. Covering intent, implementation and assessment, and outlining in detail what is included in each module for KS3 and 4, the curriculum can be adopted in its entirety but is also flexible enough for departments to take modules and slot them into their own curriculum. Providing an inspiring model for teaching English that enables all students to succeed, this is an essential resource for all English teachers and school leaders responsible for curriculum development.

Developing Writing Teachers Terry Locke, 2014-08-07 The premise of Developing Writing Teachers is this: When teachers of writing identify as writers, it adds a special dimension to their writing pedagogy. Practical and accessible while drawing on a range of relevant research and theory, this text is distinguished by its dual focus on teachers as writers and the teaching of writing. Part I addresses the question: What does it take for a teacher of writing to develop an identity as writer? Using case studies and teacher narratives, it guides readers to an understanding of the current status of writing as the 21st century unfolds, the role of expressive writing in developing a writing identity, the relationship of writing to genre and rhetoric, writing and professional identity, and writing as design. Part II focuses on pedagogical practice and helping writer teachers develop a toolkit to take into their classrooms. Coverage includes building a community of writing practice, the nature of writing as process, the place of grammar, the role of information communication and representational technologies, and how assessment properly used can help develop writing. Ideal for pre-service and in-service courses on the teaching of writing, the Companion Website provides additional readings, documents, PowerPoint presentations, assessment resources, and lesson and unit plans and planning guides.

Assessment in the Primary Classroom Sarah Earle, 2019-05-20 Essential reading to support principled assessment decisions in the classroom. Assessment has become an increasingly complex area for primary schools in recent years, with schools and academy trusts trying to create their own ways of assessing without levels. Trainee teachers find it hard to understand key principles in assessment when practice in each of their school experiences is so varied. This essential text supports trainee and beginning teachers to understand the current context and consider essential principles for good practice in primary assessment. The book features explanations of key terminology, includes practical examples from classrooms and schools, supports teacher assessment literacy, explores the assessment system as a whole, covers formative and summative assessment, pupil progress data, and moderation.

Professional Studies in Primary Education Hilary Cooper, Sally Elton-Chalcraft, 2022-01-12 This textbook gives you a broad overview of everything you will need to know to prepare for your initial teacher training and future career in the classroom Covering practical issues including planning and assessment and thought provoking topics such as reflecting on your practice and developing critical thinking skills this textbook provides you with an insightful exploration of the realities of teaching in primary schools This fourth edition has been comprehensively revised and includes five new chapters on Teacher wellbeing The Early Career Framework ECF Digital literacy and primary schools after the pandemic Growth mindset dialogue and P4C Learning outside the classroom This is essential reading for all students on primary initial teacher education courses including university based PGCE BEd BA with QTS and schools based School Direct SCITT Teach First routes into teaching Hilary Cooper is Professor Emeritus of History and Pedagogy at the University of Cumbria Sally Elton Chalcraft is Professor of Social Justice in Education and also the Director of the Learning Education and Development Research centre in the Institute of Education at the University of Cumbria
