, 1992 America's War Machine James McCartney, Molly Sinclair McCartney, 2015-10-27 A veteran Washington reporter reveals how years of military slanted domestic and foreign policy have turned the U S into a perpetual war machine When President Dwight D Eisenhower prepared to leave the White House in 1961 he did so with an ominous message for the American people about the disastrous rise of the military industrial complex Fifty years later the complex has morphed into a virtually unstoppable war machine one that dictates U S economic and foreign policy in a direct and substantial way Based on his experiences as an award winning Washington based reporter covering national security James McCartney presents a compelling history from the Cold War to present day that shows that the problem is far worse and far more wide reaching than anything Eisenhower could have imagined Big Military has become too big to fail and has grown to envelope the nation's political cultural and intellectual institutions These centers of power and influence including the now complicit White House and Congress have a vested interest in preparing and waging unnecessary wars The authors persuasively argue that not one foreign intervention in the past 50 years has made us or the world safer With additions by Molly Sinclair McCartney a fellow journalist with 30 years of experience America's War Machine provides the context for today's national security state and explains what can be done about it Justice Without Violence Paul Ernest Wehr, Heidi Burgess, Guy M. Burgess, 1994 A mixture of theoretical analysis and case studies from Asia Africa Europe Latin America and the Middle East this book examines non violent direct action political action economic sanctions and social movements as alternative remedies in the struggle for justice The authors thus address the basic questions that underlie current debates in international politics over the use of preventive diplomacy humanitarian intervention and international enforcement action Uinta National Forest (N.F.), Land and Resource Management Plan, Juab, Sanpete, Tooele, Utah and Wasatch Counties ,2003

Alternative Models of Sports Development in America B. David Ridpath,2018-01-16 In the United States the entanglement of sports and education has persisted for over a century Multimillion dollar high school football stadiums college coaches whose salaries are many times those of their institutions presidents psychological and educational tolls on student athletes and high profile academic scandals are just symptoms of a system that has come under increasing fire Institutions large and small face persistent quandaries which do they value more academic integrity or athletic success Which takes precedence prioritizing elite teams and athletes or making it possible for all students to participate in sports How do we create opportunities for academic not just athletic development for players In Alternative Models of Sports Development in America B David Ridpath a leading sports development researcher who has studied both the US system and the European club model offers clear steps toward creating a new status quo He lays out four possible alternative models that draw various elements from academic athletic and European approaches His proposals will help increase access of all young people to the benefits of sports and exercise allow athletes to also thrive as students and improve competitiveness The result is a book that will resonate with sports development professionals academic administrators and parents Tongue River Railroad Company Construction and Operation of Line in Custer/Rosebud/Powder River Counties ,1985 Chinese

Peace in Africa Steven C.Y. Kuo,2019-08-02 China s emergence in Africa is the most significant development for the continent since at least the end of the Cold War Of the permanent members of the UN Security Council China is also the largest contributor in terms of troop numbers to United Nations Peacekeeping Operations UNPKO While China s potential to be a force for change in Africa is undeniable there are wildly varied and sometimes unrealistic expectations in both the West and Africa of China s role in Africa A more detailed and nuanced understanding of Chinese motivations in its African engagement is necessary in order to work effectively with China for African peace security and development With Liberia Darfur and South Sudan as case studies Kuo comprehensively examines the Chinese peace and places it within the context of the liberal peace debate He does so using primary sources translated from the original Chinese as well as interviews conducted in Mandarin with Chinese policymakers academics diplomats as well as Chinese company managers and businessmen working in Liberia and South Sudan He also traces and analyses the Chinese discourse of peace from traditional Chinese political philosophy through Mao Zedong and Deng Xiaoping to post reform and the Xi Jinping era
