HOVER POINT Eric E. Wallace,2023-03-10 Graeme Stockbridge is America s best TV journalist and nightly news anchor unequalled in talent and charisma He s at the height of his career But now Graeme would like to drastically slow down whenever he s off the air Rather than doing the news from the constant tumult of his network s studios Graeme decides he wants to broadcast year round from a small working ranch in semi rural Idaho Instead of being caught in the noisy rush of big city life he wants to continue his work but also to enjoy farming ranching and nature while living near Hiram a small Idaho town where neighborliness is key In his free time Graeme wants to take long traffic free walks in the quiet countryside try his hand at agriculture rediscover photography study birds plants and insects wander the canyons of the Snake River enrich his marriage and further explore the meaning of his life Graeme s network resists his grand idea his wife Lara a noted architect also resists and his TV pioneer father resists

On top of that not everyone in the little town of Hiram is as welcoming as one might expect Far from it Hiram and the surrounding areas have many charming residents and more than a few slightly oddball types mostly harmless and often fun But there are also those people who like to flaunt their rights under Idaho's open carry law those who like to challenge all levels of government and those who keep parts of their lives well hidden for good reason In seeking to move away from the ultra fast pace of network news in Los Angeles and New York Graeme sets in motion a series of events which lead to tragedy and which take him and Lara into a world of secrets and danger The novel goes behind the scenes into control rooms and studios during major television broadcasts into the adrenalin infused complexities of covering of a national news crisis into the machinations of corporate boardrooms and out into the remarkable Idaho countryside a world of dramatic scenery incredible raptors and an amazing insect the dragonfly HOVER POINT is told with Eric Wallace's usual flair quiet humor and gorgeous prose It is an intriguing mixture of drama philosophical observations lyricism wit and suspense with a great lineup of characters including an operative pathologist an enigmatic sheriff a sociopathic university professor and a border collie named not without good reason Trepidation
