

Agatha Christie

Agatha Christie was one of the most famous writers of detective stories. She was born in England on 15th September, 1890 and died in 1976. She was the youngest of three children. Agatha's childhood¹ was happy but lonely one. Her father died when she was a child. Agatha was educated at home. At 16 she was sent to school in Paris where studied piano and singing. She was very good at it but she was too shy to start a career in music. When her mother took her to Cairo for a winter, she wrote there a novel. In 1914 Agatha married Archibald Christie and they had a daughter, Rosalind. In her first detective story The Mysterious Affair at Styles she introduced Hercule Poirot, the Belgian detective, who appeared in more than 40 books. Poirot was a nice comic character² with egg-shaped head and an eccentric moustache. He is as popular as Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes. 'Miss Marple, an elderly spinster³', was a typical English character who used her feminine sensitivity to solve crimes. She used to wear a small hat with a feather. . . Agatha Christie wrote over seventy five detective novels, romantic novels and several short stories and plays, including The Mouse Trap. It is considered the world's longest running play and in 2002 it celebrated its 50th anniversary with a special performance. Her Majesty The Queen Elizabeth II and the Duke of Edinburgh attended it. Many of her stories became famous films, including Murder on the Orient Express. By the time of her death she was the best- selling English novelist of all times.
