

Essay on Honesty

The saying 'honesty is the best policy' is probably heard by everyone. However, it is hard to be honest with everyone around, and even more, it takes a lot of courage to be honest with yourself. On the other hand, a parent cannot expect their child to be honest in life if they are not honest to themselves. Hence, it would not be unfair to say that honesty is a two-way street. But even if the other person is being dishonest, one should stick to the policy of being honest. The reasons why honesty is the best policy are discussed below.

First of all, honesty is an attribute that helps you develop other traits such as kindness and moral integrity in your personality. Truthfulness is a trait that is instilled in your personality as a kid, and it only works in life if the people around you are truthful with each other. It also helps you to be courageous and say whatever your heart believes in. It also makes you and your opinions authentic. If you are honest, people will rely on you and your opinions if they ever need one.

However, it is very easy to lie to people, but there is no way you can do that to yourself because it will never sustain. You can only have peace of mind if you are truthful in your day-to-day happenings. It fosters a trustworthy relationship between people and helps in bringing people together.

Therefore, honesty is the fastest way to prevent a mistake from turning into a failure, and it's the first chapter of life when it comes to wisdom. Thereby, one should make an effort to leave a legacy of honesty and truthfulness for their generations to come.

Essay On To Be Truthful Is To Be Human:

The Truthful and the Good J.J. Drummond, J.G. Hart, 2013-12-11 This volume was occasioned by the desire of its contributors to honor Robert Sokolowski on his sixtieth birthday. The desire first took form on the streets of an American metropolis when several of us while attending a philosophy conference were bemoaning the lack of passion for doing philosophy as we all conceived it. In this expression of our discontent we all had a common exemplar in mind: someone for whom the passion for the truthful and the good is embodied in every sentence of his rich writings. Felicitously this very thinker was someone whom we can regard as manifesting in his person and life these same properties which his writings exhibit and pursue as luminous ideals. As a result John Brough, John Drummond, and I came up with the idea that we hold our own conference and do philosophy as we envisage it and at the same time honor its foremost exemplary practitioner whose sixtieth birthday was the following year. Immediately the idea took wings among the handful of us and the dreariness of that philosophy congress receded. The first task of thinking of possible speakers was easy. The issue of the venue for our symposium, what I like to call the Sokofest, had to be decided as well as the details of its realization.

The Limits of Truth: Essays Robert N. Britcher, 2012-12-10 These intriguing essays on philosophical truth encapsulate the history and theories of truth, the acquisition of common sense reasoning and language and logic and science. But they go beyond the logical propositional truth and investigate truth in the ontological sense, for example in faith, art, and history. The essays are literary and non-academic in style. The author has a point of view: truth is an evolutionary concept that arose among human and hominid societies. This evolutionary view stresses the high degree to which our reasoning and truth-telling are rooted in our emotions, which account for not just meaning in the linguistic sense but also meaningfulness or emotional significance. It is the latter which leaves us open to subconscious as well as fully intentional lying but also to great works of art and acts of faith.

Essays on Ayn Rand's Atlas Shrugged Robert Mayhew, 2009-01-01 While the fiction of novelist-philosopher Ayn Rand is extremely popular and enduring, little has been written on it so far. This book consists of essays, most of which are new, by top Rand scholars on Atlas Shrugged, her magnum opus. The essays deal with historical, literary, and philosophical topics, surpassing related writings in breadth and depth of analysis. The historical essays cover the writing of Atlas Shrugged, its publication history, and its reception. The literary essays cover analysis of the novel's plot, theme, and characterization, comparisons with other works such as the novels of Hugo Dostoevsky and Joyce, and the proper approach to adapting Atlas Shrugged to film. The philosophical essays cover a vast range of topics, including the place of John Galt's speech in the novel, the role of the mind in human life, and the evil of non-objective law. Some of the essays make use of previously unpublished material from the Ayn Rand Archives. Book jacket

Progress of Knowledge Samuel Bailey, 1844 Essays on the pursuit of truth, or the progress of knowledge: and on the fundamental principle of all evidence and expectation. By the author of Essays on the formation and publication of opinions S. Bailey ESSAYS., 1844 Essays on the pursuit of truth, on the progress of knowledge, by the author of Essays on the formation and publication of opinions Samuel Bailey, 1844 Essays on the Real Church Dirk J. Smit, 2024-08-15

The spirit of the Reformation is often expressed in the well known slogan that Reformed churches are always being reformed according to God's Word ecclesia reformata semper reformanda secundum verbum Dei Over the last century the spirit of this slogan motivated someone like Dietrich Bonhoeffer to argue that the visible form and life of the church should reflect the truth and message of the church Already in his doctoral dissertation called Sanctorum Communio the communion of the saints the young Bonhoeffer combined theological claims and traditions with social theory and analysis in this spirit in an innovative way to study the nature and integrity and witness of the church At the time this was a radical claim with major consequences and challenges for Protestant churches Their life which meant their order structure actions statements convictions public presence and role was to be measured by their gospel which meant their message proclamation convictions claims They could no longer proclaim one truth yet live a different life It was this spirit which led to the well known Theological Declaration of Barmen in 1934 and to the formation of the Confessing Church in Nazi Germany Many called this a moment of truth a status confessionis It was this same spirit which later inspired the struggle in South Africa for the integrity and faithfulness of the church and for the credibility of its message proclamation and witness The contributions in this volume 52 papers essays sermons studies were all produced in this spirit Most of them have not been published before They were all occasional pieces written over several decades in different contexts and for different purposes and audiences yet they all breathe this self critical spirit of the Reformation considering whether the real church the concrete every day actual living church that people know and experience and perhaps belong to truly strives to embody the gospel itself the message which it claims and proclaims They all inquire under different circumstances and in diverse ways about different social forms of the real church from worship to congregation from denomination to ecumenical church from individual believers to movements and organisations whether and how they embody the truth of the church or not Together these contributions tell a story the story of this spirit in South African circles over several decades but also in the ecumenical church in our globalizing world They offer one small glimpse into different concrete moments in the story of this spirit in the life of this tradition and community of faith Hopefully some of these accounts may resonate with others who also shared the same spirit and still share it today in new and ongoing ways Essays James Beattie, 1776 Essays and dissertations Benjamin Jowett, 1894 Truth, 1885 In and Out of Each Other's Bodies Maurice Bloch, 2015-11-17 What is human sociality How are universals such as truth and doubt variously demonstrated and negotiated in different cultures This book offers an accessible introduction to these and other fundamental human questions Bloch shows that the social consists of two very different things One is a matter of continual adjustments between individuals who read each others minds and thus as in sex and birth go in and out of each other s minds and bodies The other is a time defying system of roles and groups Interaction at this level is created by ritual and is unique to humans What is referred to by the word religion is a part of this but it is not separate The study of religion as such is therefore theoretically misleading A second major theme is the way truth is established in different cultures Bloch s arguments go against recent approaches in anthropology which have sought to relativize ideas of the social and religion The Political Philosophy of Zionism Eyal Chowers,2012-02-27 Zionism emerged at the end of the nineteenth century in response to a rise in anti Semitism in Europe and to the crisis of modern Jewish identity This novel national revolution aimed to unite a scattered community defined mainly by shared texts and literary tradition into a vibrant political entity destined for the Holy Land As this remarkable book demonstrates however Zionism was about much more than a national political ideology and practice By tracing its origins in the context of a European history of ideas and by considering the writings of key Jewish and Hebrew writers and thinkers from the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the book offers an entirely new philosophical perspective on Zionism as a unique movement based on intellectual boldness and belief in human action In counter distinction to the studies of history and ideology that dominate the field this book also offers a new way of reflecting upon contemporary Israeli politics Real Essays for College & Grad School Anne McKinney,2000 Colleges and universities place great emphasis on essays written as part of the process for admission and scholarships This guide to constructing essays includes essays that have worked for real people plus dozens of other actual samples Reason and Religion in Clarissa Professor E Derek Taylor,2013-04-28 What distinguishes Clarissa from Samuel Richardson s other novels is Richardson s unique awareness of how his plot would end In the inevitability of its conclusion in its engagement with virtually every category of human experience and in its author s desire to communicate religious truth E Derek Taylor suggests Clarissa truly is the Paradise Lost of the eighteenth century Arguing that Clarissa s cohesiveness and intellectual rigor have suffered from the limitations of the Lockean model frequently applied to the novel Taylor turns to the writings of John Norris a well known disciple of the theosophy of Nicolas Malebranche Allusions to this first of Locke s philosophical critics appear in each of the novel s installments and Taylor persuasively documents how Norris s ideas provided Richardson with a usefully un Lockean rhetorical grounding for Clarissa Further the writings of early feminists like Norris s intellectual ally Mary Astell who viewed her arguments on behalf of women as compatible with her conservative and deeply held religious and political views provide Richardson with the combination of progressive feminism and conservative theology that animate the novel In a convincing twist Taylor offers a closely argued analysis of Lovelace s oft stated declaration that he will not be out Norris d or out plotted by Clarissa showing how the plot of the novel and the plot of all humans exist in the context of Richardson s grand theological experiment within through and by a concurrence of divine energy Essays on the Trinity Lincoln Harvey,2018-07-23 This volume gathers together twelve essays on the doctrine of the Trinity It includes the work of systematic theologians analytic theologians and biblical scholars who address a range of issues concerning the Christian doctrine of God Contributors include Jeremy Begbie Julie Canlis Douglas Campbell William Hasker and Christoph Schwobel The volume also includes a new essay written by the late Robert W Jenson shortly before his death The Trial That Never Ends Richard J. Golsan, Sarah Misemer, 2017-03-17

The fiftieth anniversary of the Adolf Eichmann trial may have come and gone but in many countries around the world there is a renewed focus on the trial Eichmann himself and the nature of his crimes This increased attention also stimulates scrutiny of Hannah Arendt's influential and controversial work Eichmann in Jerusalem The contributors gathered together by Richard J Golsan and Sarah M Misemer in The Trial That Never Ends assess the contested legacy of Hannah Arendt's famous book and the issues she raised the banality of evil the possibility of justice in the aftermath of monstrous crimes the right of Israel to kidnap and judge Eichmann and the agency and role of victims The contributors also interrogate Arendt's own ambivalent attitudes towards race and critically interpret the nature of the crimes Eichmann committed in light of newly discovered Nazi documents The Trial That Never Ends responds to new scholarship by Deborah Lipstadt Bettina Stangneth and Shoshana Felman and offers rich new ground for historical legal philosophical and psychological speculation Joseph Ratzinger and the Future of African Theology Maurice Ashley Agbaw-Ebai, Matthew Levering, 2021-12-27 This book engages the theology of Joseph Ratzinger Pope Benedict XVI in dialogue with African Catholic theological concerns and challenges After an Introduction by Matthew Levering arguing that African Catholic theology is an important resource for the whole Church the book contains ten chapters by African and non African Catholic theologians Paulinus Odozor investigates whether and if so how the God of Jesus Christ stands in continuity with the God known to African Traditional Religions Paul latub sun Adaja addresses faith and reason in light of the current African anthropological crisis Tegha Nji and Valery Akoh connect Ratzinger's idea of pro existence with traditional African understandings of solidarity Jacob Phillips compares the theologies of Robert Cardinal Sarah and Joseph Ratzinger Benedict XVI Dennis Kasule examines the requirements of a New Evangelization for Africa in light of the case of Uganda Joseph Lugalambi proposes that the Catholic liturgies of Africa are in need of reform Mary Reginald N Anibueze explores the Eucharist as a socio communitarian event Emery de Gaal reflects upon Ratzinger Benedict's theology of inculturation Joseph Ogbonnaya treats Caritas in Veritate with a focus upon the case of Nigeria Maurice Ashley Agbaw Ebai meditates upon Ratzinger's understanding of political power Truth Matters John G. Trapani, 2004 Drawing upon the richness and breadth of Jacques Maritain's thought the contributors to this volume engage readers with philosophical essays about the search for truth in human life and civic engagement The essays examine a broad range of topics from those that are more properly theoretical such as God science natural law practical reason education and democracy to those that are more practical such as capital punishment eugenics friendship love and art In each essay the author implicitly challenges the claims of relativism and postmodernism specifically the idea that there is no real truth and that what matters is merely the perspective of one's own frame of reference. The essays argue instead that theoretical truth claims have practical consequences that truth matters to those who are affected by it. In addition to the editor, the contributors are Gavin T. Colvert, John A. D. Cuddeback, Raymond Dennehy, Bernard E. Doering, Desmond J. FitzGerald, Sarah J. Fodor, William J. Fossati, W. Matthews Grant, James G. Hanink, Katie Hollenberg, Gregory Kerr, James P. Mesa, Peter Pagan, Matthew S. Pugh, James V. Schall, S. J. Michael D. Torre, John R. Traffas, Cornelia A. Tsakiridou, Timothy S. Valentine, S. J. A. Leo White, Anne M. Wiles, and Henk E. S. Woldring. John G. Trapani Jr. is Professor of Philosophy and Chair of the Humanities Division at Walsh University in North Canton, Ohio.

Nietzsche's Naturalist Deconstruction of Truth Peter Bornedal, 2020-01-03

Nietzsche's Naturalist Deconstruction of Truth: A World Fragmented in Late Nineteenth Century Epistemology offers a new interpretation of Nietzsche's discussions of truth and knowledge covering the period from his early essay On Truth and Lies in an Extra-Moral Sense to his late notebooks. It places these discussions in the context of the neo-Kantian, Naturalist, Positivist, and Pragmatic schools influential in Nietzsche's late nineteenth century Europe. Peter Bornedal argues for a view of Nietzsche's epistemological thought as an elaboration of this paradigm, proposing ideas that are anti-metaphysical and anti-theological in their polemic orientation and in general promoting new scientific naturalist ideals in the discussions of knowledge. Bornedal suggests that the rational pursuit of these new ideals to the unencumbered mind logically leads to Nihilism in its most profound epistemological sense. Nietzsche's critique of metaphysics is thus seen as having sprung from sources different from and at times in patent opposition to more recent postmodern and deconstructionist critiques. This book contextualizes Nietzsche in relation to a number of philosophical peers and juxtaposes him to contemporary thinkers in a way that resolves some of the difficulties that have plagued recent Nietzsche scholarship.
