M.

McGowan, 2015-10-29 In the west of the 1890s Jake s wife is raped and murdered an image from which he attempts to escape and hide When two thieves try to take what little he has left Jake realizes he must face the past and solve his wife s murder to truly escape the images in his head But to find the killer he discovers even more surprises Jake McTavish left his home in central Canada when he was in his early teens After working ships on the Great Lakes fishing Lake Winnipeg feeding cattle south of Fort Garry and shooting wolves on the prairies he starts his own cattle operation in the foothills of the western mountains Then he meets his life long partner Anna Jake and Anna were married three years when it all came crashing down He came home to find his beautiful wife raped and murdered In an attempt to escape the vision of his butchered wife and all that he lost Jake runs deep into the mountains where he spends three years trapping and panning gold When two outlaws attempt to rob him and leave him for dead Jake finally comes out of the stupor he has lived in and begins to fight back First he deals with the two thugs Next he returns to his homestead to find his wife s killer Solving a murder after several years is no easy task especially when it includes surprises he didn t want to find The Making of a Fast Gun Thompson

Burnside, 2023-05-19 About the Book The Making of a Fast Gun The Story of Colt McCoy is the exciting tale of both violence and redemption It tells the story of Colt who gets caught up in circumstances that are beyond his control Colt stood up for his friend which then made him a target for every fast gun that wanted to enhance their own reputation This takes him on a violent journey that appears to have no escape and all Colt wants is to be home with his family and the girl that he loves About the Author Thompson Burnside was born and raised in West Virginia which he refers to as almost heaven He loves God his country and his family He has a deep concern and love for others He enjoys hunting and fishing in the beautiful Allegheny Mountains Making a Way out of No Way Lisa Krissoff Boehm, 2010-01-06

The Second Great Migration the movement of African Americans between the South and the North that began in the early 1940s and tapered off in the late 1960s transformed America This migration of approximately five million people helped improve the financial prospects of black Americans who in the next generation moved increasingly into the middle class Over seven years Lisa Krissoff Boehm gathered oral histories with women migrants and their children two groups largely overlooked in the story of this event She also utilized existing oral histories with migrants and southerners in leading archives In extended excerpts from the oral histories and in thoughtful scholarly analysis of the voices this book offers a unique window into African American women's history. These rich oral histories reveal much that is surprising. Although the Jim Crow South presented persistent dangers, the women retained warm memories of southern childhoods. Notwithstanding the burgeoning war industry, most women found themselves left out of industrial work. The North offered its own institutionalized racism; the region was not the promised land. Additionally, these African American women juggled work and family long before such battles became a staple of mainstream discussion. In the face of challenges, the women who share their tales here crafted lives of great meaning from the limited options available, making a way out of no way.

Riding Shotgun Amy Lane, 2024-10-22 Val Royal's tight family has always had his back, but they love to interfere in his life. That interference almost sends him over the edge when they arrange for Rory McCauley, security specialist, marksman, and hound dog smartass, to ride shotgun as security on his latest run. Hot, bossy, and sharp as a tack, Val ticks all Rory's boxes, but Val is looking for something real, and Rory is allergic to intimacy. Besides their gig running refrigerated bull semen from Bakersfield to Austin, could they make or break Val's buddy's ranch, so Val is understandably pretty focused on the job. Rory still wishes Val would let him help Val, uh, relax. As Val and Rory work to keep their payload safe from a couple of determined saboteurs and they get to know each other as smart, competent, fearless professionals, sparks fly, and Val starts to fall for Rory's roguish charm. But can he convince Rory their romance would be worth more than a straight shot to Austin that it would be a love worth coming home to.

Making a Difference Ada Deer, Theda Perdue, 2019-10-15 2019 National Native American Hall of Fame Inductee. This stirring memoir is the story of Ada Deer, the first woman to serve as head of the Bureau of Indian Affairs. Deer begins, "I was born a Menominee Indian. That is who I was born and how I have lived." She proceeds to narrate the first eighty-three years of her life, which are characterized by her tireless campaigns to reverse the forced termination of the Menominee tribe and to ensure sovereignty and self-determination for all tribes. Deer grew up in poverty on the Menominee Reservation in Wisconsin, but with the encouragement of her mother and teachers, she earned degrees in social work from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Columbia University. Armed with a first-rate education, an iron will, and a commitment to justice, she went from being a social worker in Minneapolis to leading the struggle for the restoration of the Menominees' tribal status and trust lands. Having accomplished that goal, she moved on to teach American Indian Studies at UW-Madison, to hold a fellowship at Harvard to work for the Native American Rights Fund, to run unsuccessfully for Congress, and to serve as Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Indian Affairs in the Clinton administration. Now in her eighties, Deer remains as committed as ever to human rights, especially the rights of American Indians. A deeply personal story written with humor and honesty, this book is a testimony to the ability of one individual to change the course of history through hard work, perseverance, and an unwavering commitment to social justice.
