

People Who Are Everyday Heroes for Me Essay

An Everyday Hero By 10/11/2012 Everybody has an everyday hero. An everyday hero, though who they are and why they are our hero may be different from the person next to us, have at least one thing in common, they make a difference in our daily lives. Everyday heroes can be intelligent, brave, kind, loving, or anything else that you may consider as a heroic trait. For me personally, I consider my mom to be an everyday hero in my life. One of the heroic traits I see in my mom is that she is always there for me no matter what. She is the one who comes to my mind when days are filled with dread and then, my days become bright once again.

My Mother as My Everyday Hero

If I am going through a "rough patch" in life she is there, standing by my side ready to do whatever she can to make that patch of my life great once more, if not better than it was before. When I fall she is there, right next to me, ready to help me up any time that I need. Another trait my mom has that makes her an everyday hero in my life, is that she always has time to lend a listening ear and comfort those around her. No matter how petty something bugging me may be, she will sit there right beside me until I have finished speaking out. She then hugs me close and manages to find the perfect thing to say.

She does this time and time again always ready to lend yet another listening ear and a flow of comforting words. Everyday it comforts me knowing that once I get home all my worries or complaints will look trivial after spending a few seconds with her. This trait, is the last in the order of writing, but not in importance, for that is a fact that I will not counteract. The trait my mom possesses that I find to be her best, is the fact that she always has had the unconditional love that I think all heroes must possess. No matter what's done, said or expressed she will be there with a love that always forgives, and never fades away. The only way her love ever changes is the fact that it grows stronger everyday. I can only hope that one day I may acquire that heroic trait, and that it has the same abundance in me as it is does in my mom. This written exposition has come to an end, and without a doubt, I can confidently state, that my mom is an extraordinary everyday hero and is one of a kind. I perceive her as a kind, loving, understanding, caring, gentle soul. She is the person who always saves my day, she is my hero, and I will love and admire her always.

Landscapes of the Soul Douglas V. Porpora, 2003-10-09 Do you believe in God Nine out of ten Americans unhesitatingly answer yes But for Douglas Porpora the real questions begin where pollsters leave off What he asks does religious belief actually mean in our lives Does it shape our identities and our actions Or despite our professions of faith are we morally adrift Landscapes of the Soul paints a disturbing picture of American spiritual life In his search for answers to his questions Porpora interviewed clerks and executives Jews evangelical Christians Buddhists Taoists and even followers of Bhagwan Sri Rajneesh He asked them about God and about what they saw as their own place in the universe What he found was a widespread inability to articulate any grand meaning of life We lack heroes to inspire us We lack a sense of calling of transcendent purpose in our existence Many of us seem incapable of caring deeply about the suffering of others Our society is permeated with moral indifference Yes we are a believing people but God is often a distant abstraction and rarely an emotional presence in our lives Only such an emotional connection Porpora argues can be the basis of a genuine moral vision Our emotional estrangement from God and the sacred keeps us from caring about social justice keeps us from wanting to change the world keeps us enclosed in our own private worlds Landscapes of the Soul is a passionate call to broaden our spiritual and moral horizons to raise our eyes to the greater reality that unites us all Modern Wittenberg William A.
