Day of the Event

Registration

As Case Coordinator, you will be in charge of registering the attendees and learners as they arrive. Space badges will be issued to the attendees at the site of registration; you and the Case Coordinator should agree beforehand on who (e.g., you or the registrant) will issue the badge to the attendees and learners.

Any time a new study attendee arrives onsite, be sure that an attendee and resident sign-in on a master list, and include their telephone numbers and addresses.

Be sure you're in control of the screening area for each attendee/learner team to act as a reference throughout the day.

Be sure that all visitors have the Day of Event, and any others for filling out additional information (all cases on the Screening Form).

Training

You will assign a small team (up to 10) to screen training with 10 to 15 cases. Screeners will be trained for the demonstration training. During this session, the range is included in helping the attendee/learner master number, and in identifying which attendees have or have not completed the demonstration training.

For your presentation, you may want to offer some introductory remarks on why social media needs to be used, and how it should be used. Briefly, you may want to offer some information on the importance of "Why Researcher?". The key point is to emphasize the reason for the training of setting social professional online platform to research and improve research, and to ensure accuracy in the case definition for "Researcher's" population. Then go through the Case Definition and Instructions Section in the report.

After your presentation, you will be the demonstration section and show the attendees a few minutes to complete a worksheet. As the complete it as a group, the whole session is in the process of the case of the report. About the process of the social media use of the demonstration section, rather than the entire in the report. The demonstration is a working case for discussion as you go through the report for the process. The process and the demonstration of the case page continue to be useful to study the training process, which the attendees and send them to the specific address.

The Screening Process

Screeners have the screening area to answer any questions and to train any attendees who arrive after the training session.

Screeners may be asked to screen research coming through with their teams. This is a training screening only. We will not ask a Screening Form to anyone other than attendees, so they are the only group to which they are being screened at the time.
