

QUESTION 12
10/1000000000

English Literature

Read the text and answer the question. You must write your answer in the space below.

1. The Family

- Family structure: composition, functional internal, and identification, as well as the implications
 - Single-parent: fatherly-motherly split: unparented and step-parently structure;
 - Extended: a compound of father, mother, brother, sister;
 - Nuclear: a family including relatives narrower than parents and children;
 - Blended: a family formed when a single parent marries. May include an ex-spouse or children from previous marriages, as well as new children with a new spouse.
 - Single: reference to a child or a group of children.
- Family stages: the beginning, expanding, and contracting family sub-processes
 - The beginning: family formation/early parenthood;
 - Expanding: early parenthood;
 - Contracting family: empty nest;
 - Reformation: divorce/separation.
- Family functions: the activities and development of family members, including maintenance of the stage, functional mapping, participation, interaction, setting physical, emotional, and psychological family members, including parenting, supplying basic needs, managing relationships, creating and maintaining stable relations, and providing resources.

The following passage will suggest various hypotheses for the development and maintenance of family systems.

- Relative stability: relationships involving individuals tend to have stable components, which they develop over time. In the context of a family, this means that some behaviors after the formation of stable parents and other components interact with them.
- Continuous evolution: continuous evolution in the process of interacting in a family environment. The major factors that influence the family are: genetically inherited traits, personality and various capabilities, the support of other people and resources, and the ability to adapt to the environment.
