Janie Gleeson, 2014-11-23 The introduction of solid foods to babies is one of the most important milestones in a baby's life. It is also a very memorable event for every parent. When babies show signs of readiness for solid foods, many moms and dads feel happy and excited. However, some may feel a little worried because not all parents know what kind of food to feed their baby nor how to prepare it. Old and new parents alike often rely on store-bought baby food and then stick to that until the child is ready to eat regular foods. Just to clarify, don't let the word solid confuse you. Solid food is considered everything beyond what's fed through the baby bottle. Solid baby food is really referring to the blended or mashed baby foods that you often see in those cute little glass baby jars at the grocery store. But better yet, why not make a more fresh nutritious and delicious version at home? For those first-time moms and dads out there who have no idea what food to prepare for their babies, here is a cookbook that contains over a dozen recipes of delicious and nutritious baby foods. These are baby food recipes that are low cost, easy to prepare, and ones that your baby will actually love. Mama's Ultimate Homemade Baby Food Cookbook
