Shaw's design company is just the first innovative element in a company that takes pride in its distinctive architectural culture. Shaw's first headquarters, an office building in Seattle, is the last building designed and constructed by Shaw's founder, architect and interior designer, John Shaw. The building is a prime example of Shaw's design philosophy, which is to create a building that is both functional and beautiful. Shaw's design philosophy is to create a building that is both functional and beautiful. Shaw's design philosophy is to create a building that is both functional and beautiful.
