My Revision Notes Edexcel A2 History: From Kaiser to Führer: Germany 1900-45 Barbara Warnock, 2013-02-22 Unlock your potential with this revision guide which provides both the key content you need to know for this A2 History unit and guidance on how to apply it for better grades Written by senior examiners and experienced teachers this series closely combines the content of AS and A2 level history topics for AQA Edexcel and OCR history specifications with revision activities and advice on exam technique In addition each section has a model answer with exam tips for you to analyse and better understand what is required in the exam Makes revision of the content manageable by condensing topics into easy to revise chunks Encourages active revision by closely combining content with a variety of different activities Helps improve exam technique through tailor made activities and plenty of guidance on how to answer questions      The Bloomsbury Handbook of Rock Music Research Allan Moore,Paul Carr,2020-07-09 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Rock Music Research is the first comprehensive academic survey of the field of rock music as it stands today More than 50 years into its life and we still ask what is rock music why is it studied and how does it work both as music and as cultural activity This volume draws together 37 of the leading academics working on rock to provide answers to these questions and many more The text is divided into four major sections practice of rock analysis performance and recording theories business of rock and social and culture issues Each chapter combines two approaches providing a summary of current knowledge of the area concerned as well as the consequences of that research and suggesting profitable subsequent directions to take This text investigates and presents the field at a level of depth worthy of something which has had such a pervasive influence on the lives of millions      The Life and Death of Secondary Education for All Richard Pring,2013-05-07 Is there life after death for secondary education This book focuses upon the quality of learning Reform so called too often begins with qualifications examinations institutional provision paths of progression All those are very important but their value lies in the support they give to learners and their learning in its different forms One needs to start with the aims of education and then with what it means to learn practically theoretically morally and with the very many different needs of the learners That is what this book aims to do In so doing it will be both philosophical in analysis and empirical in example So much is happening from down below that goes unrecognised by policy makers But innovations too often get hampered by government interventions by a bureaucratic mentality and by failure to spread good practice The general argument of the book therefore will be illustrated throughout with detailed references to practical developments in schools colleges the third sector youth work independent training providers and professional bodies across several countries The book builds on Education for All which was based on 14 19 research into secondary education this book transcends the particularities of England and Wales and digs more deeply into those issues which are at the heart of educational controversy policy and practices and which survive the transience of political change and controversy The issues the aims of education standards of performance the consequent vision of learning the role of teachers progression from school to higher or further education and into employment the provision of such education and training and the control of education are by no means confined to the UK or to this day and age Pring identifies similar problems in other countries such as the USA Germany and France and indeed in the Greece of Plato and Aristotle and offers solutions with a comparative perspective It is a critical time Old patterns of education and its provision are less and less suitable for facing the twenty first century The patterns and modes of communication have changed radically in a few years and those changes are quickening in pace The economic context has been transformed affecting the skills and knowledge needed for employment The social world of young people raises fresh demands hopes and fears A global recession has affected young people disproportionately making quality of life and self fulfilment ever more difficult to attain In addressing learning and the learners first and foremost the book will argue for a wider vision of learning and a more varied pattern of provision Old structures must give way to new      Secondary History in Action Catherine Priggs,Hugh Richards,David Hibbert,Elizabeth Carr,2025-06-06 Drawing on over 60 years combined experience of history teaching and history curriculum leadership Carr Hibbert Priggs and Richards explore ways to make history memorable engage students in historical thinking and secure excellent outcomes for all Their perspective is grounded in history s disciplinary distinctiveness and a vision for its purpose in students education The authors of Secondary History in Action articulate practical approaches to history curriculum design ways to teach disciplinary history in the classroom and methods to assess students knowledge and understanding They draw together recent research and established traditions in history teaching discourse in a coherent summary that will be helpful to trainee and beginning teachers non specialist teachers of history subject leaders and senior leaders line managing history departments      Britain in the Twentieth Century Ian J.
