The history of youth work in Europe, Volume 5 - Autonomy through dependency Siurala, Lasse, Coussée, Filip, Suurpää, Leena, Williamson, Howard, Council of Europe, 2016-05-17 The History of youth work in Europe series aims to achieve better understanding of current challenges in youth work and youth policy Volume 5 addresses questions like How have government policies and administrative practices over the past few decades affected youth work What kind of strategies has youth work developed to react to them and to create a positive space for work with young people Can educational approaches of youth work like social pedagogy help mediate between young people in their ever changing lives and society Co operation between youth policy youth research and youth work has been called the Magic Triangle but is the magic still there This publication discusses these and other topics from a variety of perspectives The authors come not only from Europe but also from the USA Australia and South Africa providing a refreshing comparative reflection on youth work issues and opportunities which is revealed to be global in nature They also have diverse and varied backgrounds in youth research youth work youth policy making and youth worker training This comparative historical perspective puts some of the pieces of the youth work puzzle together while many are left unconnected It also becomes apparent that there is an element of randomness in the historical development of youth work Many structures policies approaches and methods are not historically necessary Rather many things could have come out differently This volume on the history of youth work provides many readings it provides a rich collection of national youth histories to complement and build upon the four earlier volumes and histories and analyses of youth work for readers to compare with their own experience sharpen their critical view and inspire their thinking

Topology and Geometry of Manifolds Gordana Matic, Clint McCrory, 2003 Since 1961 the Georgia Topology Conference has been held every eight years to discuss the newest developments in topology The goals of the conference are to disseminate new and important results and to encourage interaction among topologists who are in different stages of their careers Invited speakers are encouraged to aim their talks to a broad audience and several talks are organized to introduce graduate students to topics of current interest Each conference results in high quality surveys new research and lists of unsolved problems some of which are then formally published Continuing in this 40 year tradition the AMS presents this volume of articles and problem lists from the 2001 conference Topics covered include symplectic and contact topology foliations and laminations and invariants of manifolds and knots Articles of particular interest include John Etnyre s Introductory Lectures on Contact Geometry which is a beautiful expository paper that explains the background and setting for many of the other papers This is an excellent introduction to the subject for graduate students in neighboring fields Etnyre and Lenhard Ng s Problems in Low Dimensional Contact Topology and Danny Calegari s extensive paper Problems in Foliations and Laminations of 3 Manifolds are carefully selected problems in keeping with the tradition of the conference They were compiled by Etnyre and Ng and by Calegari with the input of many who were present This book provides material of current interest to graduate students and research mathematicians interested in the geometry and topology of manifolds

Interpreting Visual Ethnography Erkan Ali, 2018-02-07 Focusing on the use of text in relation to a specific category of image the photographic image this book argues for a new appreciation of the relationship between texts and photographs in an age that seems to be dominated by visual images With reference to a range of traditional and new media forms and addressing such issues as gender ethnicity class identity politics and biography the author introduces a new perspective for the use and understanding of the symbiotic relationships that can exist between photographs and texts in the production of sociological cultural and historical narratives lamination Drawing on the work of Barthes and Benjamin the book explores the material forms of publications that involve the combination of photographs and texts such as newspapers and journalism documentary archives visual ethnographies and on line social networks showing how text and image are contexts for one another and so negotiate meaning between themselves A challenge to the recent visual turn in sociology and cultural studies which argues without privileging text or image for the significance of text in relation to visual images and the production of combined meanings Interpreting Visual Ethnography will appeal to scholars of sociology anthropology and media studies with interests in theory visual methods and text and meaning
