Motorcycle Lease To Own:

Motorbike People Will Rollason, 2019-12-03 In Motorbike People Power and Politics on Rwandan Streets Will Rollason examines the relationship between power and culture Rollason looks at what social scientists gain and lose by abandoning the assumption that power is a universal feature of human social life Through an ethnographic account of the lives and livelihoods of motorcycle taxi drivers in Kigali Rwanda Rollason depicts how forms of personhood can sit uneasily with conventional accounts of power relationships From the motorcyclists everyday dealings with the police and each another to the regulation of their businesses at large and the Rwandan constitution Rollason depicts the need for varied concepts of power By allowing concepts of power to proliferate the social sciences lose the political capacity to engage in questions of justice and make common cause with the oppressed but gain the ability to rethink what it means to act politically and meet the challenges of a swiftly changing world This work is recommended for students and scholars of the social sciences To Be a Man Is Not a One-Day Job Daniel Jordan Smith, 2017-11-24 Refrains about financial hardship are ubiquitous in contemporary Nigeria frequently expressed through the idiom to be a man is not a one day job But while men talk constantly about money underlying their economic worries are broader concerns about the shifting meanings of masculinity amid changing expectations and practices of intimacy Drawing on twenty five years of experience in southeastern Nigeria Daniel Jordan Smith takes readers through the principal phases and arenas of men s lives the transition to adulthood searching for work and making a living courtship marriage and fatherhood fraternal and political relationships and finally the attainment of elder status and death He relates men s struggles both to fulfill their own aspirations and to meet society s expectations He also considers men who behave badly mistreat their wives and children or resort to crime and violence All of these men face similar challenges as they navigate the complex geometry of money and intimacy Unraveling these connections Smith argues provides us with a deeper understanding of both masculinity and society in Nigeria Motorcycle Education Michigan. Mitullah,Nina Torm,2021-11-24 The promotion of social protection in Sub Saharan Africa happens in a context where informal labour markets constitute the norm and where most workers live uncertain livelihoods with very limited access to official social protection The dominant social protection agenda and the associated literature come with an almost exclusive focus on donor and state programmes even if their coverage is limited to small parts of the populations and in no way stands measure to the needs In these circumstances people depend on other means of protection and cushioning against risks and vulnerabilities including different forms of collective self organizing providing alternative forms of social protection These informal bottom up forms of social protection are at a nascent stage of social protection discussions and little is known about the extent or models of these informal mechanisms This book seeks to fill this gap by focusing on three important sectors of informal work namely transport construction and micro trade in Kenya and Tanzania It explores how the global social protection agenda interacts with informal contexts and how it fits with the actual realities of the informal workers Consequently the authors examine and compare the social protection models conceptualized and implemented from above by the public authorities in Tanzania and Kenya with social protection mechanisms from below by the informal workers own collective associations The book will be of interest to academics in International Development Studies Political Economy and African Studies as well as development practitioners and policy communities Senate Bill Virginia.
