mind Necromedia prescribes new research practices in the humanities that involve both written work and the creation of objects to think with that are designed to infiltrate and shape the technoculture that surrounds us TV Guide, 2005

Pizzato,2016-05-13 How do twentieth and twenty first century artists bring forth the powerful reality of death when it exists in memory and lived experience as something that happens only to others Death in American Texts and Performances takes up this question to explore the modern and postmodern aesthetics of death Working between and across genres the contributors examine literary texts and performance media including Robert Lowell s For the Union Dead Luis Valdez Dark Root of a Scream Amiri Baraka s Dutchman Thornton Wilder s Our Town John Edgar Wideman s The Cattle Killing Toni Morrison s Sula and Song of Solomon Don DeLillo s White Noise and Falling Man and HBO s Six Feet Under As the contributors struggle to convey the artist s crisis of representation they often locate the dilemma in the gap between artifice and nature where loss is performed and where re membering is sometimes literally reenacted through the bodily gesture While artists confront the impossibility of total recovery or transformation so must the contributors explore the gulf between real corpses and their literary or performative reconstructions Ultimately the volume shows both artist and critic grappling with the dilemma of showing how the aesthetics of death as absence is made meaningful in and by language Behind the

Prestige Television Seth Friedman, Amanda Keeler, 2022-11-11 Prestige Television explores how a growing array of 21st century US programming is produced and received in ways that elevate select series above the competition in a saturated market Contributing authors demonstrate that these shows are positioned and understood as comprising an increasingly recognizable genre characterized by familiar markers of distinction In contrast to most accounts of elite categorizations of contemporary US television programming that center on HBO and its primary streaming rivals these essays examine how efforts to imbue series with prestigious or elevated status now permeate the rest of the medium including network as well as basic and undervalued premium cable channels Case study chapters focusing on diverse series ranging from widely recognized examples such as The Americans 2013 2018 and The Knick 2014 15 to contested examples like Queen of the South 2016 2021 and How I Met Your Mother 2005 2014 highlight how contributing authors extend conceptions of the genre beyond expected parameters
