L. J. Shaw, 2012 The complexity of the interplay and relationships over various borders in medieval Europe is here fully teased out The processes by which ideas objects texts and political thought and experience moved across boundaries in the Middle Ages form the focus of this book which also seeks to reassess the nature of the boundaries themselves it thus appropriately reflects a major theme of Dr Malcolm Vale s work which the essays collected here honour They suggest ways of breaking down established historiographical paradigms of Europe as a set of distinct polities achieving a more nuanced picture in which people and objects were constantly moving and challenging previous conceptions of units and borders The first section examines the construction of boundaries and units in the later Middle Ages via topics ranging from linguistic units to social stratifications and geographically from the Netherlands and Scotland to Gascony and the Iberian peninsula it reveals how much the relationship between exchange and boundaries was reciprocal The second section considers the mechanisms by which it took place from West Africa to Italy and Flanders and discusses the actual exchange of people texts and unusual artefacts Overall the essays bear witness to the constant interplay and interconnections throughout medieval Europe and beyond Contributors Paul Booth Maria João Violante Branco Rita Costa Gomes Mario Damen Jan Dumolyn Jean Dunbabin Jean Philippe Genet Michael Jones Maurice Keen Frédéric Lachaud Patrick Lantschner Guilhem P. Pin R. L. J. Shaw Hannah Skoda Erik Spindler John Watts Past Sense — Studies in Medieval and Early Modern European History Constantin Fasolt, 2014-04-03 The twenty studies collected in this volume focus on the transition from the Middle Ages to the modern world The method leads from technical investigations on William Durant the Younger ca 1266 1330 and Hermann Conring 1606 1681 through reflection on the nature of historical knowledge to a break with historicism an affirmation of anachronism and a broad perspective on the history of Europe The introduction explains when and why these studies were written and places them in the context of contemporary historical thinking by drawing on Wittgenstein s Philosophical Investigations This book will appeal to historians with an interest in historical theory historians of late medieval and early modern Europe and students looking for the meaning of history Witch Hunts in Europe and America William E. Bitel,2002-10-24 This is a history of the early European middle ages through the eyes of women combining the rich literature of women s history with original research in the context of mainstream history and traditional chronology The book begins at the end of the Roman empire and ends with the start of the long eleventh century when women and men set out to test the old frontiers of Europe The book recreates the lives of ordinary women but also tells personal stories of individuals Each chapter also questions an assumption of medieval historiography and uses the few documents produced by women themselves along with archaeological evidence art and the written records of medieval men to tell of women their experiences and ideas and their relations with men It covers the continent and its exotic edges such as Iceland Ireland and Iberia looking at women Christian and non Christian alike
