Gender Language And New Literacy A Multilingual Analysis:

Gender, Language and New Literacy Eva-Maria Thüne, Simona Leonardi, Carla Bazzanella, 2009-03-01 A cutting edge research book that internationally examines cross cultural research on gender as it is lexically and socially categorized in electronic media

Gender, Language and New Literacy Eva-Maria Thüne, Carla Bazzanella, Simona Leonardi, 2009-01-01 Gender Language and New Literacy presents cross cultural research on gender as it is lexically and socially categorized in electronic media For the purposes of the study the authors have compiled a corpus of gender terms from online thesauruses to show how new technologies interact with gender categorizations in different languages and how these are related to their respective culture and society Each language is examined within the same theoretical framework functional semantics focusing on lexicon This common empirical ground facilitates cross language comparison The contributors examine languages from around the world including the Indo European Semitic Uralic and Austro Asiatic families This is a cutting edge research book that will be of interest to academics working in the fields of corpus linguistics and gender studies

An Interdisciplinary Bibliography on Language, Gender and Sexuality (2000–2011) Heiko Motschenbacher, 2012-09-11 This comprehensive state of the art bibliography documents the most recent research activity in the vibrant field of language gender and sexuality It provides experts in the field and students in tertiary education with access to language centred resources on gender and sexuality and is therefore an ideal research companion The main part of the bibliography lists 3 454 relevant publications monographs edited volumes journal articles and contributions to edited volumes that have been published within the period from 2000 to 2011 It unites work done in linguistics with that of neighbouring disciplines covering studies dealing with a broad range of languages and cultures around the globe Alphabetical listing and a keyword index facilitate finding relevant work by author and subject matter The e book version additionally enables users to search the entire document for specific terms Sections on earlier bibliographies and general reference works on language gender and sexuality complete the compilation

The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Linguistics William S-Y Wang, Chaofen Sun, 2015-01-29 The Oxford Handbook of Chinese Linguistics offers a broad and comprehensive coverage of the entire field from a multi disciplinary perspective All chapters are contributed by leading scholars in their respective areas This Handbook contains eight sections history languages and dialects language contact morphology syntax phonetics and phonology socio cultural aspects and neuro psychological aspects It provides not only a diachronic view of how languages evolve but also a synchronic view of how languages in contact enrich each other by borrowing new words calquing loan translation and even developing new syntactic structures It also accompanies traditional linguistic studies of grammar and phonology with empirical evidence from psychology and neurocognitive sciences In addition to research on the Chinese language and its major dialect groups this handbook covers studies on sign languages and non Chinese languages such as the Austronesian languages spoken in Taiwan

Morphological and Syntactical Irregularities in the Book of Revelation

Laurențiu Moț, 2015-03-31 Morphological and Syntactical Irregularities in the Book of Revelation by Laurențiu Florentin Moț is an approach to the solecisms of Johannine Apocalypse from a Greek perspective. The work aims at demonstrating that in accord with Second Language Acquisition studies, Semitic transfer in Revelation is extremely rare. Most of its linguistic peculiarities can be explained within the context of the Greek language. Morphological and Syntactical Irregularities in the Book of Revelation is unique in several ways. First, it deals with the most comprehensive list of solecisms. Second, it treats grammatical irregularities in their own right, looking at their cause, explanation, and contribution to the interpretation of the text. Third, it is interdisciplinary, bringing together textual criticism, Greek linguistics, and NT exegesis.

The Gender Challenge of Hebrew Malka Muchnik, 2014-09-18 The Gender Challenge of Hebrew is the first book to delve in depth into the problem of gender representation over the 3 000 year history of the Hebrew language. By analyzing and illustrating the grammatical characteristics of gender in Biblical, Mishnaic, Medieval, and Modern Hebrew, Malka Muchnik reveals the social and cultural issues that they reflect. Gender discrimination in all periods of Hebrew is shown in sacred liturgical and literary texts as well as in the popular language spoken today. All of them testify to the problematic status of women who were traditionally excluded from religious studies and public activities and in recent decades have been struggling to change this practice. Malka Muchnik shows that linguistic change remains a challenging goal.

Usage-Based Studies in Modern Hebrew Ruth A. Berman, 2020-03-18 The goal of the volume is to shed fresh light on Modern Hebrew from perspectives aimed at readers interested in the domains of general linguistics, typology, and Semitic studies. Starting with chapters that provide background information on the evolution and sociolinguistic setting of the language, the bulk of the book is devoted to usage-based studies of the morphology, lexicon, and syntax of current Hebrew. Based primarily on original analyses of authentic spoken and online materials, these studies reflect varied theoretical frames of reference that are largely model neutral in approach. To this end, the book presents a functionally motivated dynamic approach to actual usage rather than providing strictly structuralist or formal characterizations of particular linguistic systems. Such a perspective is particularly important in the case of a language undergoing accelerated processes of change in which the gap between prescriptive dictates of the Hebrew Language Establishment and the actual usage of educated, literate but non-expert speaker-writers of current Hebrew is constantly on the rise.
