A Hidden History of Youth Development in South Africa Margaret Perrow, 2021-03-15 Drawing on two decades of interviews and ethnographic fieldwork 1998 2018 this book presents a unique and multi faceted history of youth development in South Africa through the lens of a South African non governmental organization NGO prominent in youth development from the mid 1980s until 2008 The book weaves history ethnography and discourse analysis to contextualize the

Joint Enrichment Project JEP in the politics and history of South African education It examines JEP's role leading up to and during South Africa's transition to democracy its work and influence in post apartheid South Africa and the continued relevance of its legacy to contemporary initiatives seeking to address youth development and social justice While JEP repeatedly repositioned itself as an organization from fighting the effects of apartheid on young people to becoming a potential partner with the new African National Congress ANC led government its most significant role may have been to reposition people After tracing JEP's twenty year history the book focuses on the participants in a 1998 Youth Work Scheme exploring their learning experiences and the program's immediate impact on their lives It then revisits these participants twenty years later in 2018 analyzing their life trajectories after JEP and comparing them with the life trajectories of former JEP staff over the same period shedding light on broader patterns of socio economic reproduction and change in the country The book concludes with a discussion of a perennial paradox facing youth development institutions This book will be of great interest to academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of education international development anthropology and African studies

Decolonising Multilingualism in Africa Finex Ndhlovu, Leketi Makalela, 2021-07-16 This book interrogates and problematises African multilingualism as it is currently understood in language education and research It challenges the enduring colonial matrices of power hidden within mainstream conceptions of multilingualism that have been propagated in the Global North and then exported to the Global South under the aegis of colonial modernity and pretensions of universal epistemic relevance The book contributes new points of method theory and interpretation that will advance scholarly conversations on decolonial epistemology by introducing the notion of coloniality of language a summary term that describes the ways in which notions of language and multilingualism in post colonial societies remain colonial The authors begin the process of mapping out what a socially realistic notion of multilingualism would look like if we took into account the voices of marginalised and ignored African communities of practice both on the African continent and in the diasporas

Political Communication in Sub-Saharan Africa, Volume II Isaac Mhute, Esther Mavengano, 2024-12-02 This book is one of two volumes that examines the role of political communication media and language in transforming politics governance and democracy in sub Saharan Africa Interdisciplinary in approach this second volume analyses themes including political advertising and rhetoric activism populism fake news and political violence Combining theoretical work with individual case studies on countries including Tanzania South Africa Zimbabwe Nigeria and Ghana the book highlights the important connection between political communication and governance and the ways in which language reforms can help to overcome challenges related to public administration It will appeal to all those interested in public policy public administration governance and political communication as well as linguistics media studies and African politics
