Islamism And Security In Bosnia Herzegovina:

Islamism and Security in Bosnia-Herzegovina Leslie S. Lebl, Strategic Studies Institute, 2014 U S experts fear violence could once again break out in Bosnia Herzegovina and some even want the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO to mount another military mission there Yet few of these experts focus on the danger of gradually expanding Islamism In Bosnia it appears to have made slow but steady progress despite resistance from Bosnia s moderate Muslims Senior Bosniak Muslim leaders retain their long standing Islamist ties and their calls to impose traditional Islamic law or sharia and develop closer ties with the Islamic world only aggravate Bosnian Croat and Serb separatism Islamism and Security in Bosnia-Herzegovina Strategic Studies Institute, U.s. Army War College Press, 2014-12-31 Bosnia Herzegovina once thought to be on the way to joining the North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO and the European Union EU is instead falling behind mired in political bickering economic stalemate and governmental dysfunction In this difficult situation Islamism poses a significant threat to Bosnia s fragile domestic stability Although the levels of Islamist terrorism and separatist movements are comparable to those elsewhere in Europe they are particularly troublesome in Bosnia for two reasons First senior political and religious Bosniak Muslim leaders have long standing ties to the Muslim Brotherhood and Islamist terrorism including al Qaeda and Iran that they are very reluctant to abandon Second Islamism contributes significantly to Bosnia s dysfunction as a country Calls to re impose traditional Islamic law or sharia arouse opposition from Bosnian Serbs and Croats as does the nostalgia for the Ottoman Empire and Islamic Caliphate shared by key Bosniak leaders the Organization of Islamic Cooperation OIC and the Turkish government Islamism and Security in Bosnia-Herzegovina Lebl, 2014 Islam and Security in the West Stefano Bonino, Roberta Ricucci, 2021-04-26 What changes have the terrorist attacks on the United States in 2001 and the subsequent attacks in Europe brought to Western societies In what ways have these events and their aftermath impacted on the relationships between Muslim communities and Western societies This book explores the remaking of the relationship between Islam and Islamism on the one hand and security and securitization on the other hand by arguing that 9 11 and its aftermath have led to the opening of a new phase in Western and European history and have remade the relationship between Islam and governmental and societal approaches to security The authors utilize case studies across the Western world to understand this relationship Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia-Herzegovina Xavier Bougarel, 2017-12-14 Based on substantial fieldwork and thorough knowledge of written sources Xavier Bougarel offers an innovative analysis of the post Ottoman and post Communist history of Bosnian Muslims Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia Herzegovina explores little known aspects of the war in Bosnia and Herzegovina unravels the paradoxes of Bosniak national identity and retraces the transformations of Bosnian Islam from the end of the Ottoman period to today It offers fresh perspectives on the wars and post war periods of the Yugoslav space the forming of national identities and the strength of imperial legacies in Eastern Europe and Islam s presence in Europe The question of how Islam is tied to national identity still divides Bosnian Muslims Islam and Nationhood in Bosnia Herzegovina places the history of ties between Islam and politics in Bosnia and Herzegovina in the larger global context of Bosnian Muslims relations both with the umma the global Muslim community and Europe from the late 19th century to the present and is a vital contribution to research on Islam in the West

Islam and Bosnia Maya Shatzmiller, 2002-05-15 Islam and Bosnia re examines the conflict of the 1990s from the perspectives of international relations conflict resolution and history as well as psychology anthropology and cultural studies Rejecting the primordialist or ancient hatreds interpretation as the root of the conflict the authors detail how a complex cultural transformation led to the erosion of what had been the common inclusionist base of a multi ethnic state and brought about a new exclusionist nationalism By pulling together the individual elements of culture society and foreign policy and analysing their interaction Islam and Bosnia demonstrates how the secular romantic nationalism of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries centred on history language and landscape was overthrown in favour of one that highlighted religion race and territory Islam and Bosnia shows how the Bosnian conflict bears on the wider contexts of cultural paradigms deadly conflicts and the formulation of foreign policy It argues for a new perspective in foreign policy making one that would embrace and incorporate better and deeper knowledge and understanding of culture history and ideology Contributors include Tone Bringa University of Bergen Amila Buturovic York University John V A Fine University of Michigan Peter W Galbraith former U S ambassador to Croatia Graham N Green former Canadian ambassador to Croatia Nader Hashemi Ph D candidate University of Toronto John M Reid information commissioner for Canada Andr s Riedlmayer Harvard University Michael A Sells Haverford College Donald W Smith former Canadian ambassador to Croatia and Vamik D Volkan University of Virginia

Jihadism in the Russian-Speaking World Danis Garaev, 2022-08-29 This book contends that the discourses of jihadism in Russia s North Caucasus and their offshoots in other parts of the Russian Federation are not just reflections of jihadi ideologies that came from abroad rather that post Soviet jihadism is a phenomenon best understood when placed in the broader cultural environment in which it emerged an environment which comprises the North Caucasus the whole of Russia and beyond It examines how post Soviet jihadism is also part of global processes in this case global jihadism explores how post Soviet jihadism bears the imprint of the preceding Soviet context especially in terms of symbols discursive tools interpretational frameworks and dissemination strategies and discusses how ironically Russian speaking jihadism is an expansionist idea for uniting all Russian regions on a supra ethnic principle but an idea that was not born in Moscow or St Petersburg Overall the book demonstrates that Russian speaking jihadism is a completely new ideology which nevertheless has its origins in the intellectual and cultural heritage of the Soviet era and in the broader trends of post Soviet society and culture

Islam in Russia: The Politics of Identity and Security Shireen Hunter, 2016-09-16 This richly detailed study traces the shared history of Russia and Islam in expanding compass from the Tatar civilization within the Russian heartland to the conquered territories of the Caucasus and Central Asia to the larger geopolitical and security context of contemporary Russia on the civilizational divide The study's distinctive analytical drive stresses political and geopolitical relationships over time and into the very complicated present Rich with insight the book is also an incomparable source of factual information about Russia's Muslim populations religious institutions political organizations and ideological movements

Shaping South East Europe's Security Community for the Twenty-First Century S. Cross, S. Kentera, R. Vukadinovic, R. Nation, 2013-05-07 In this book leading academics and policy practitioners develop approaches for managing critical contemporary and emerging security challenges for South East Europe They attempt to conceptualize and realize security as a cooperative endeavour for collective good in contrast to security narratives driven by power and national egotism

Islamist and Middle Eastern Terrorism: a Threat to Europe? Maria do Céu Pinto, 2004 Islam and Political Violence Shahram Akbarzadeh, Fethi Mansouri, 2010-06-30 How do we engage with the pressing challenges of xenophobia radicalism and security in the age of the war on terror The widely felt sense of insecurity in the West is shared by Muslims both within and outside Western societies Growing Islamic militancy and resulting increased security measures by Western powers have contributed to a pervasive sense among Muslims of being under attack both physically and culturally Islam and Political Violence brings together the current debate on the uneasy and potentially mutually destructive relationship between the Muslim world and the West and argues we are on a dangerous trajectory strengthening dichotomous notions of the divide between the West and the Muslim world

Handbook of Political Islam in Europe Thomas Jäger, Ralph Thiele, 2024-03-31 This book approaches the field of Political Islam from a European security perspective Featuring various case studies and country surveys written by respected experts in the field it offers a comparative perspective and comprehensive overview of the ideology and prevalence of Political Islam and its actors in more than 20 European states The respective contributions identify key actors of Political Islam and reveal the activities means and strategies they pursue and employ across the continent They also discuss if and how Political Islam could undermine the Western liberal democratic order and its associated values By doing so the volume offers approaches to analyzing Political Islam and thereby strengthening the resilience of liberal democratic societies while also protecting Muslims from the radical ideology and agenda of Political Islam Chapter Hybridizing Islam in the Balkans The Rise of Salafi Hanafism in Bulgaria is licensed under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License <http://creativecommons.org/licenses/by/4.0/> For further details see license information in the chapter div

Religion as Securitization in Central and Eastern Europe András Máté-Tóth, Kinga Povedák, 2024-09-18 Religion as Securitization in Central and Eastern Europe examines the significance of securitization theory as a reference point in understanding current religious socio cultural and political processes in Central and Eastern Europe CEE It explores contemporary social processes and discourses on security linked to religion and religious institutions CEE has experienced many confluences of security issues with religious interpretations and world views For instance the international refugee and migration crisis could not be separated from the counterpoint between Christianity and Islam in political discussions Similarly the debates on LGBT family recognition and the traditional family model are inseparable from the Christian family as a reference point The security needs of the region are particularly acute trigger points which can be instrumentalized by political power In other words the threat sensitivities of collective identity make the region particularly well suited to being a focus of securitization both from the host side and from the discourses that are enforced from above In this volume the authors approach the validity of securitization in relation to religion and religion itself as securitization from a broader perspective They show not only what religious facts and aspects have become threatening in the process of securitization but also that the function of religion in the CEE region can be described and understood primarily as securitization This unique collection of studies offers a comprehensive theoretical and methodological approach while the case studies are drawn from more than seven countries in the region by leading scholars The book will be of interest to scholars from a wide range of disciplines including political science history anthropology and religious studies It will also function as an important introductory work for students to this specific area of research

Peace and Security in the Western Balkans Nemanja Džuverović, Věra Stojarová, 2022-08-16 This book outlines the main security threats actors and processes in the Western Balkans following the dissolution of Yugoslavia Exploring the state of peace and security in the region it asks if a stable peace is achievable The comparative framework explores state perspectives from Serbia Montenegro Northern Macedonia Bosnia and Herzegovina Albania and Kosovo alongside military political societal economic and environmental security concerns The interplay of international actors is also considered Academics scholars and practitioners who deal with Balkan issues either as a focus or comparatively and have interests in security and peace studies will find the volume invaluable along with students of political science security studies peace studies area studies Eastern European studies and or Southeast European studies and international studies in general

Identity and Security in Former Yugoslavia Zlatko Isakovic, 2019-05-24 This title was first published in 2000 A clear concise and comprehensive analysis of the concept of societal security this groundbreaking book systematically applies the concept of societal security to the five successor states of Former Yugoslavia Looking at the past and present it studies the implications for the future

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari'a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

Religious Minorities, Nation States and Security Mario Apostolov, 2020-10-07 This title was first published in 2001 Why in this contemporary secular age does violent conflict among confessional communities still occur Covering several key conflicts of recent years in one of the most dynamic areas of the world the Eastern Mediterranean and the Balkans Mario Apostolov uses both interpretative and comparative analysis to answer this question His versatile approach makes for an engaging account that makes an important contribution to the current debate surrounding such conflicts The author focuses on five case studies taken from the traditional zone of contact between Christianity and Islam The Copts The Palestinian Christians The Lebanese communities The Pomaks The communities of Bosnia Herzegovina The book examines the relationship between these issues and communal mobilisation the collective use of violence and the problems of international security An informative study for students academics policy makers and personnel in international organizations with an interest in communal conflict and security

Human Security Mary Kaldor, 2013-05-03 There is a real security gap in the world today Millions of people in regions like the Middle East or East and Central Africa or Central Asia where new wars are taking place live in daily fear of violence Moreover new wars are increasingly intertwined with other global risks the spread of disease vulnerability to natural disasters poverty and homelessness Yet our security conceptions drawn from the dominant experience of World War II and based on the use of conventional military force do not reduce that insecurity rather they make it worse This book is an exploration of this security gap It makes the case for a new approach to security based on a global conversation a public debate among civil society groups and individuals as well as states and international institutions The chapters follow on from Kaldors path breaking analysis of the character of new wars in places like the Balkans or Africa during the 1990s The first four chapters provide a context they cover the experience of humanitarian intervention the nature of American power the new nationalist and religious movements that are associated with globalization and how these various aspects of current security dilemmas have played out in the Balkans The last three chapters are more normative dealing with the evolution of the idea of global civil society the relevance of just war theory in a global era and the concept of human security and what it might mean to implement such a concept This book will appeal to all those interested in issues of peace and conflict in particular to students of politics and international relations

Crime-Terror Alliances and the State Lyubov

Mincheva, Ted Robert Gurr, 2013-01-03 This book examines the trans border connections between militant and criminal networks and the relationship between these and the states in which they operate Unholy alliances is a term used to describe hybrid trans border militant and criminal networks that pose serious threats to security in Europe and elsewhere Identity networks provide the basis for militant organizations using violent strategies insurgency and terrorism for political objectives To gain funds and weapons militant networks may establish criminal enterprises or align with existing trans border criminal and financial networks This book extends the concept of unholy alliances to include the trans state criminal syndicates that arise in failed and dysfunctional states exemplified by Serbia and Bulgaria during their post Communist transitions To deal with this complex and unconventional subject the authors develop a theoretical framework that looks at four kinds of factors conditioning the interaction between the political and the criminal trans state identity networks armed conflict the balance of market opportunities and constraints and the role of unstable and corrupt states The volume also examines actors at two levels of analysis the structure and activities of militant and or criminal networks and the policies of state actors that shape and reshape the interaction of opportunities and constraints This book will be of much interest to students of terrorism insurgency transnational crime war and conflict studies and IR in general Islam in Malaysian Foreign Policy Shanti Nair, 2013-01-11 A case study of a multi ethnic Muslim state and a contribution to the study of the domestic functions of foreign policy The book also addresses the real and imagined significance of Islam as a force in contemporary global politics
