The diagram illustrates the relationship between Opportunity (Demand) and Value. It features a central hexagonal structure with five layers, representing the internal components of a service ecosystem. The layers, from the outermost to the innermost, are:

- Building principles
- Governance
- Service value chain
- Practices
- Continual improvement

Two circular nodes, "Opportunity (Demand)" on the left and "Value" on the right, are connected to the central structure. Arrows indicate a flow from Opportunity to Value through the layers of the service ecosystem. A curved arrow at the bottom also points from Opportunity to Value, suggesting a direct path or feedback loop.
