- What is a mortgage?

A mortgage is a legal agreement by which a bank or other lender provides funds (money) to someone in exchange for selling their real estate property. Using this principle, the ownership of the real-estate would remain the lender's, not other's. Therefore that gives the lender financial power (lending money). If you don't receive sufficient amount of money, mortgage is very much like a loan. If you don't have all your money, then you have to pay it back. (What are the risks involved?)

- What is a mortgage? Is it a loan?

A mortgage is a loan that is used to buy real estate. The lender provides the money, and the borrower provides the property. The lender's money is used to buy the property, and the borrower pays back the money with interest. (What are the risks involved?)
