Language and Institutional Identity in the Post-Apartheid South African Higher Education Leketi

Makalela,2022-03-21 This book examines the intersections between education identity formation and language in post apartheid South Africa with specific attention to higher education It does so against the backdrop of the core argument that the sector plays a critical role in shaping re producing and perpetuating sectoral class sub national and national identities which in turn in the peculiar South African setting are almost invariably analogous with the historical fault lines determined and dictated by language as a marker of ethnic and racial identity The chapters in the book grapple with the nuances related to these intersections in the understanding that higher education language policies overt and or covert largely structure institutional cultures or what has been described as curriculum in higher education institutions Together the chapters examine the roles played by higher education by language policies and by the intersections of these policies and ethnolinguistic identities in either constructing and perpetuating or deconstructing ethnolinguistic identities upon which the sector was founded The introductory chapter lays out the background to the entire book with an emphasis on the policy and practice perspectives on the intersections The middle chapters describe the so called White Universities Black Universities and Middle Man Minorities Universities The final chapter maps out future directions of the discourses on language and identity formation in South Africa s higher education

The Contested Idea of South Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,Busani Ngcaweni,2021-11-29 This book reflects on the complex and contested idea of South Africa drawing on a wide range of disciplinary perspectives Ever since the delineation of South Africa as a country the many diverse groups of people contained within its borders have struggled to translate a mere geographical description into the identity of a people Today the new struggles for South Africa and to become South African are inextricably intertwined with complex challenges of transformation xenophobia claims of reverse racism social justice economic justice service delivery and the resurgent decolonization struggles reverberating inside the universities This book covers the genealogy of the idea of South Africa exploring how the country has been conceived of by a broad group of actors including the British Afrikaners diverse African nationalist traditions and new formations such as the Economic Freedom Fighters EFF Black First Land First BLF and student formations Rhodes Must Fall Fees Must Fall Over the course of the book a broad range of themes are covered including identity formation modernity race ethnicity indigeneity autochthony land gender intellectual traditions poetics of South Africanness language popular culture truth and reconciliation and national development planning Concluding with important reflections on how a colonial imaginary can be changed into a free and inclusive postcolonial nation state this book will be an important read for Africanist researchers from across the humanities and social sciences

The Changing Face of Land and Conservation in Post-colonial Africa George Barrett, Shirley Brooks, Jenny Josefsson, Nqobile Zulu, 2016-03-22 The year 2013 marked the 100th anniversary of the 1913 Land Act in South Africa which legalised the violent dispossession and alienation of the African majority from the land It is common cause that the alienation of land for conservation purposes introduced to Africa under colonial rule has continued more or less uninterrupted until today However while nature conservation practices inevitably raise challenging questions relating to land and land use there has thus far been little concentrated effort to bring together scholars working on the land question particularly around issues of land tenure with those whose work focuses on questions of nature construction and the social impacts of conservation in an African context Compiled from research presented at a ground breaking interdisciplinary conference held at Rhodes University in Grahamstown South Africa in 2012 the chapters in this book made their first appearance in a special issue of the Journal of Contemporary African Studies JCAS in July 2013 The book brings critical interdisciplinary analyses of the complex interrelations between contemporary neoliberal conservation practices in post colonial Africa into conversation with the well trodden territory of land use and contested land issues on the continent Anchored by an intellectual curiosity about the extent to which past practices continue into the present and with what consequences the book provides fresh insights into the complex relationship between land and conservation in contemporary Africa

South Africa Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic and Practical Information IBP, Inc., 2015-09-11 South Africa Investment and Business Guide Volume 1 Strategic and Practical Information

The relative clause formation in Zulu Alexandra Orth, 2011-05-09 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Linguistics grade 2.0 University of Freiburg English Seminar course HS Grammaticalization language English abstract My term paper deals with one of the South African languages the Zulu language In my grammar report accompanying the seminar I already dealt with the Zulu language more precisely I tried to explain the phenomenon of the Zulu noun Besides our seminar the motivation and idea to deal with this topic has arisen from my personal experiences Since I lived and worked approximately five months in South Africa last year The Zulu language aroused my interest because it differs from all languages I know but nevertheless it includes English words or word parts This time in my term paper I will try to discuss the way of forming a relative clause in Zulu This formation usually involves a prefix also called relative concord which is attached to the predicate of a relative clause A relative clause is a subordinate clause that modifies a noun Generally in most European languages a relative clause is introduced by a relative pronoun which belongs to a special class of pronouns In other languages relative clauses may be marked in different ways they may be introduced by a special class of conjunctions called relativizers the main verb of the relative clause may appear in a special morphological variant or a relative clause may be indicated by word order alone In some languages more than one of these mechanisms may be possible Since relative clauses in Zulu were formed in a different way than in most European languages I would like to examine this problem in more detail Framing the Race in South Africa Karen E. Ferree, 2010-11-15 Post apartheid South African elections have borne an unmistakable racial imprint Africans vote for one set of parties whites support a different set of parties and with few exceptions there is no crossover voting between groups These voting tendencies have solidified the dominance of the ruling African National Congress ANC over South African politics and turned South African elections into racial censuses This book explores the political sources of these outcomes It argues that although the beginnings of these patterns lie in South Africa's past in the effects apartheid had on voters' beliefs about race and destiny and the reputations parties forged during this period the endurance of the census reflects the ruling party's ability to use the powers of office to prevent the opposition from evolving away from its apartheid era party label By keeping key opposition parties white the ANC has rendered them powerless solidifying its hold on power in spite of an increasingly restive and dissatisfied electorate Theatre and Empowerment Richard Boon, Jane Plastow, 2004-08-19 Theatre and Empowerment examines the ability of drama theatre dance and performance to empower communities of very different kinds and it does so from a multi cultural perspective The communities involved include poverty stricken children in Ethiopia and the Indian sub continent disenfranchised Native Americans in the USA and young black men in Britain victims of violence in South Africa and Northern Ireland and a threatened agricultural town in Italy The book asserts the value of performance as a vital agent of necessary social change and makes its arguments through the close examination from inside practice of the success not always complete of specific projects in their practical and cultural contexts Practitioners and commentators ask how performance in its widest sense can play a part in community activism on a scale larger than the individual one off project by helping communities find their own liberating and creative voices Democracy South Africa

Yvonne G. Muthien,1999 The 1999 election presented the HSRC with a number of opportunities for conducting election studies These included measuring the shift in public perceptions and support in the run up to the election and conducting the first ever exit poll Historicizing Secular-Religious Demarcations Monika Wohlrab-Sahr, Daniel Witte, Christoph Kleine,2024-07-01 This volume aims to revitalize the exchange between sociological differentiation theory and the sociology of religion which previously held center stage among the sociological classics It brings together contributions from different disciplines as well as various forms of regional and historical expertise which are indispensable in forming a globally oriented sociological perspective today Secularization is understood as a process of boundary demarcation that is as the enactment of semantic practical and institutional distinctions between religion and other spheres of activity and knowledge These distinctions may emerge from within the religious field itself or may be absorbed into the field having originally emerged elsewhere They may even be directly imposed upon religion by external forces The volume is therefore based on the premise that societal differentiation and secularity as a specific expression of it is a widespread structural feature that nonetheless takes on various forms depending on its historical and cultural context In order to make this diversity visible the volume adopts a global comparative perspective and examines historical distinctions and differentiations in the West and beyond By examining different forms and modes of secularity in statu nascendi the volume contributes to developing a better understanding of the diversity of secularities even of those found in the present day in terms of their historicity and their specific path dependencies With this shift in perspective this special volume initiates a global and historical turn in the theory of differentiation as well as in the study of secularity Dictionary of Southern African Place Names Peter E Raper, Lucie A Moller, Theodorus L du Plessis,2014-12-08 The Dictionary of Southern African Place Names now in its 4th edition helps you sort your Komkhulu from your Kommetjie with the most comprehensive glossary of Southern African towns villages railway stations mountains rivers and beaches The 9 000 short entries incorporate data from sources dating as far back as 1486 encapsulating the linguistic and cultural heritage of all the peoples of the subcontinent past and present In this highly readable book the expert authors take you on a fascinating journey of the highways and byways of Southern Africa Whether you are a motorist an adventurer or merely an armchair traveller this book has a multitude of facts and details that will fascinate you This is much more than a reference book it gives an insight into what shapes a place and its people through our heroes events beliefs values fears and aspirations Performing Indigeneity Morgan Ndlovu,2019-01-20 Colonised subjects can play roles that sustain the power structure of coloniality In this book Morgan Ndlovu asks why people help support a system responsible for their own subjugation Morgan Ndlovu provides a critique of the agency of the colonised subjects as exercised under coloniality Eschewing abstract theory he takes a bottom up approach to theorising the agency of indigenous people Through analysis of the experiences of the performance of indigeneity and the staged representations of commodified culture in South Africa he recognises the efforts of the colonised subjects and the conditions under which they survive However he also cautions against choices and actions that may aggravate their conditions Performing Indigeneity provides an insightful evaluation of what could constitute an authentic indigenous agency among the colonial subalterns in India Australia Canada Africa and the Americas Learning Zulu Mark Sanders,2019-06-04 Why are you learning Zulu When Mark Sanders began studying the language he was often asked this question In Learning Zulu Sanders places his own endeavors within a wider context to uncover how in the past 150 years of South African history Zulu became a battleground for issues of property possession and deprivation Sanders combines elements of analysis and memoir to explore a complex cultural history Perceiving that colonial learners of Zulu saw themselves as repairing harm done to Africans by Europeans Sanders reveals deeper motives at work in the development of Zulu language learning from the emergence of the pidgin Fanagalo among missionaries and traders in the nineteenth century to widespread efforts in the twentieth and twenty first centuries to teach a correct form of Zulu Sanders looks at the white appropriation of Zulu language music and dance in South African culture and at the association of Zulu with a martial masculinity In exploring how Zulu has come to represent what is most properly and powerfully African Sanders examines differences in English and Zulu language press coverage of an important trial as well as the role of linguistic purism in xenophobic violence in South Africa Through one person s efforts to learn the Zulu language Learning Zulu explores how a language s history and politics influence all individuals in a multilingual society Archives of Times Past Cynthia Kros,Geoffrey Blundell,Jan Boeyens,Amanda Esterhuysen,Rachel King,Lize Kriel,Sekibakiba Peter Lekgoathi,Grant McNulty,Hlonipha Mokoena,Fred Morton,Muchaparara Musemwa,Ndukuyakhe Ndlovu,Sifiso Mxolisi Ndlovu,Himal Ramji,Justine Wintjes,2022-02 This volume critically examines sources of evidence and material from the archive that historically have been used to tell southern Africa s pre colonial story

Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post-apartheid South Africa Duane Jethro,2019 In this innovative book Duane Jethro creates a framework for understanding the role of the senses in processes of heritage making He shows how the senses were important for crafting and successfully deploying new nation building heritage projects in South Africa during the post apartheid period The book highlights how heritage dynamics are entangled in evocative changing sensory worlds Heritage Formation and the Senses in Post Apartheid South Africa features five case studies that correlate with the five main Western senses Examples include touch and the ruination of a series of art memorials how vision was mobilised to assert the authority of the state sponsored Freedom Park project in Pretoria how small memories of apartheid era social life in Cape Town informed contemporary struggles for belonging after forced removal how taste informed debates about the attempted rebranding of Heritage Day as barbecue day and how the sound of the vuvuzela popularised during the FIFA 2010 Football World Cup helped legitimise its unofficial African and South African heritage status This book makes a valuable contribution to the field of sensory studies and with its focus on aesthetics and material culture is in synch with the broader material turn in the humanities This is important reading for students and scholars of anthropology sociology sensory studies and transnational studies     Multilingual Universities in South Africa Liesel Hibbert,Christa van der Walt,2014-04-03 Focusing on the use of African languages in higher education this book showcases South African higher education practitioners attempts to promote a multilingual ethos in their classes It is a first time overview of multilingual teaching and learning strategies that have been tried and tested in a number of higher education institutions in South Africa Despite language in education policies that extol the virtues of multilingualism practice remains oriented towards English only learning and teaching In the multilingual contexts of local campuses this book shows how students and lecturers attempt to understand their multiple identities and use the available languages to create multilingual learning environments     The Zulu-Boer War 1837-1840 Michał Leśniewski,2021-04-19 This book offers an in depth examination of the conflict of 1838 to 1840 between the Zulus and the Boers Le niewski reflects on the established historiography and reappraises some key conceptions of the war The conflict has often been seen as a colonial war with the Zulus cast into the role of either villains or victims Drawing on written primary sources and Zulu oral tradition the author instead argues that the war was a struggle between an established regional power aiming to defend and consolidate its position and an incoming power seeking land settlement and local supremacy     The Law of South Africa ,1976
