animals we generally regarded other creatures as threats to our chosen few Using the logic of war we sought to maximize the populations of certain creatures and the destruction of others In the past that war effort was our great crusade for the advancement of civilization as we knew it The war had a frontier a front line and an ongoing battle on the home front Expanding outward from our various cradles of civilization we progressively tamed the forests and grasslands converting them to monocrop plantations or pastures Then we had to defend our monocrops from encroaching weeds insects and wild animals In this immediately engaging story and fact filled page turner of a book Brian Griffith looks at the range of ways we relate to animals and the stories we tell about them He asks how we choose whether buddyhood fearful respect businesslike predation or genocidal war is the most appropriate response to each species we meet He watches how our treatment of inferior beings affects our treatment of inferior people and traces some of the chain reactions we unleash when we try to weed out species we don't like Without much hope of making animals fit my personal preferences he writes I wonder how good our relations can get

Through the Eyes of Ernest D. McFee, 2014-01-08 Ever wonder what happens to the zoo and circus elephants after the all the people go home for the day Ernest knows Ernest is a captive born elephant with no connection to his wild relatives He has had no chance to experience the wild and this is perhaps his greatest tragedy He doesn't know what he is missing but he's about to find out Ernest is one of thousands of elephants kept in zoos and circuses for the amusement of humans Throughout the day humans stare at him and make silly faces At night he's confined to a tiny paddock He has no idea about life in the wild where close knit families of elephants live as long as humans presuming humans let them His first elephant friend wild born Frankie tells Ernest all about the pleasures of living wild and the family he misses so much When humans send Ernest to the circus to perform he meets other wild born elephants including wise old Mary and majestic motherly Eve Ernest learns more about what he's been denied even as he discovers the rigorous sometimes brutal world of circus training A somber but ultimately hopeful tale told from an elephant's point of view Through the Eyes of Ernest A Memoir to Honor Elephants asks us to consider why we keep such intelligent social animals in captivity

Settler Ecologies Charis Enns, Brock Bersaglio, 2024-05-01 Settler Ecologies tells the story of how settler colonialism becomes memorialized and lives on through ecological relations Drawing on eight years of research in Laikipia Kenya Charis Enns and Brock Bersaglio use immersive methods to reveal how animals and plants can be enrolled in the reproduction of settler colonialism The book details how ecological relations have been unmade and remade to enable settler colonialism to endure as a structure in this part of Kenya It describes five modes of violent ecological transformation used to prolong structures of settler colonialism eliminating undesired wild species rewilding landscapes with more desirable species to settler ecologists selectively repeopling wilderness to create seemingly more inclusive wild spaces and capitalize on biocultural diversity rescuing injured animals and species at risk of extinction to shore up moral support for settler ecologies and extending settler ecologies through landscape approaches to conservation that scale wild spaces Settler Ecologies serves as a cautionary tale for future conservation agendas in all settler colonies While urgent action is needed to halt global biodiversity loss this book underscores the need to continually question whether the types of nature being preserved advance settler colonial structures or create conditions in which ecologies can otherwise be re made and flourish Animal Wisdom Linda Bender,2014-06-10 How is it that pets are able to travel thousands of miles through unknown territory to reunite with their beloved humans How can dogs detect cancer with up to a 98 percent accuracy rate and foresee epileptic or diabetic seizures in their owners How do animals seem to know an earthquake is coming long before the world s best seismologists In Animal Wisdom veterinarian and animal advocate Linda Bender offers a wealth of amazing stories and research based evidence indicating animals have deeply perceptive even extrasensory abilities She shows us that animals are extremely perceptive intuitive and psychic and provides step by step practices for honing your natural ability to communicate with them so that you too can learn to understand their urgent messages about peace happiness and the future of the planet Animal Wisdom is for animal lovers and anyone who seeks a deeper more spiritual connection to these beautiful creatures From the table of contents Foreword by Linda Tucker PART I The Fabric of Creation Chapter 1 The Ecology of Paradise Chapter 2 How Can We Know What Animals Are Thinking and Feeling PART II What Animals Want Us to Know Chapter 3 You Are Loved Chapter 4 You Are Already Living in Paradise Chapter 5 You Don t Have to Figure Everything Out Chapter 6 Dying Isn t Bad PART III The Connection of All Creatures Chapter 7 How to Connect Telepathically with Animals A Practical Guide Chapter 8 The Animals Speak for Themselves Chapter 9 Heeding the Cries of the Nonhuman World Afterword by Andrew Harvey and interpretive procedures actually celebrated a continuum of human and animal life Synthesizing early Christian studies contemporary philosophy animal studies ethology and modern poetry Miller identifies two contradictory strands in early Christian thinking about animals The dominant thread viewed the body and soul of the human being as dominical or the crowning achievement of creation animals with their defective souls related to humans only as reminders of the brutish physical form However the second strand relied upon the idea of a continuum of animal life which enabled comparisons between animals and humans This second tendency explains Miller arises particularly in early Christian literature in which ascetic identity the body and ethics intersect She explores the tension between these modes by tracing the image of the animal in early Christian literature from the ethical animal behavior on display in Basil of Caesarea's Hexaemeron and the anonymous Physiologus to the role of animals in articulating erotic desire and from the idyllic intimacy of monks and animals in literature of desert ascetism to early Christian art that envisions paradise through human animal symbiosis Africa and
